

ELMWOOD

Mrs. Grace Plybon
Phone 4-2247

Supt. Johnston has purchased the property belonging to Rev. J. A. Adams, and plans to move there sometime before June 1.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Lenz were his brother, Ed Lenz and his sister, Mrs. Lucy Koelling, both of Ord, Neb.

There was a good number in attendance at the basket dinner at the Methodist church early Sunday evening and a crowded house at the Holy Land pictures shown later by Wm. Atchison.

Miss Wood Will Talk to Kensington

Community Kensington is scheduled to meet with Mrs. Robb on April 23 at which time Myrtle Wood will tell something of her travels in South America either by films or words.

Miss Wood later visited in New Mexico where her niece, Mrs. Grace Staten Barmore, a former ranking state officer in the Woman's Club and in Democratic committee circles was ill with arthritis in a serious form. Myrtle returned with her to her Lexington home and stayed and cared for her for two weeks.

Barn, House Are Being Constructed

Leonard Parish is having a barn built on the premises of his sister, Mrs. Lucinda Brant.

Near them a house is started on the Don Hoffman lots. This family is now living in the Perkins trailer. The Perkins family have purchased lots and have a home built in Hawaii. They expect to be stationed there for at least two years.

Seniors Present Play on Friday

Friday evening the seniors, assisted by two juniors, and directed by Mrs. Mulinix did themselves proud at their class play, "Leave it to Us." They represented a business venture called Promotions Limited. They so far had had no business, but they tracked down every possible prospect.

Dudley Doebele was president of the concern, Keith Borne-meier, vice president, and Beth Blessing, stenographer. Then there was the friend and helper, Judy Cook, the charwoman, with a lively part, Shirley Hall, and her janitor friend, Dick Woods. Inventor prospects who participated were Virgil Corack, a timid man, the spinster, Darlene Plunkett, and the wealthy socialite widow, Shirley Messel-hiser, with her daughter, Gwen Gerbeling.

Musical specialties were a piano solo by Sharon Cook, a boys' trio by Dudley Doebele, Dick Apt and Virgil Goracke, and a vocal duet by Joyceola Eiden-miller and Dorothy Brakhage. The community building was capacity filled.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Clements were their son, Fred and his friend, Ben Duerfeldt, both of Peru.

Mr. Duerfeldt delighted the congregation at the Methodist service on Sunday with a seemingly perfect rendition of the solo, "I Walked Today Where Jesus Walked." The sermon, "The Easter Afterglow," by Dr. Stov fitted in very well.

Mrs. Martha Jacobson of Chappell, Nebraska, was a guest for a few days last week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Ed James.

Mrs. Howard Capwell has been ill recently at her Lincoln home.

Mrs. Linder Gets Gift Refrigerator

This week Mrs. Harry Linder is the honoree. She appeared on television Monday from Omaha where she went to receive the gift of a refrigerator with the newest features. Her premium was given because she achieved first place in a home hint writing contest.
