

Myers - Ingalsie Nuptials Are Solemnized April 11th

St. Ann's church was the scene at 1:30 in the afternoon on Saturday, April 11, 1953, for the wedding of Miss Laura Boedecker Myers of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Myers of Louisville, to Tony P. Ingalsie, also of Omaha, son of Mrs. Rose Ingalsie of Omaha.

Father Cimmino solemnized the double ring ceremony, at which Frank Pane was soloist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Navy blue suit with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Ardis Gibbs of Omaha, who also wore a navy blue suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Mary Caccoppo of Omaha, niece of the groom, was bridesmaid and also wore a navy blue suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was red carnations.

Charles Ingalsie served his brother as best man.

A reception was held Saturday evening at St. Ann's hall for the newlyweds. A wedding dinner followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Ingalsie is a graduate of Louisville high school and Nebraska Methodist hospital school of nursing. A registered nurse, she has been employed at Children's Memorial hospital.

Mr. Ingalsie is a graduate of Tech high school of Omaha. Open house in the evening was held at the couple's new home in Omaha.

Among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Boedecker, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, who came from Sacramento, California, for the wedding.

Mrs. Effie Shera and Mrs. Rose Hull are co-chairmen of the Rock Bluff cemetery fund raising and clean-up campaign. Mrs. Shera's name was incorrectly listed in the Journal in Monday's issue.

Engagement Announced

Miss Charlene Haney and Mr. and Mrs. Loyne L. Haney announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlene, to Leon Meisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Meisinger of Louisville.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Poppy Poster Contest Entries Are Due Soon

Plattsmouth grade school artists are setting the early standard for Poppy Day to be held here on May 2. The young artists are competing in the annual Poppy Poster contest being conducted by the American Legion Auxiliary, sponsors of Poppy Day.

Contest entries are expected to be completed and results told at the April 23 meeting of the Auxiliary.

Meanwhile plans for Poppy Day, under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Dunlap and Mrs. Leonard Brothers are moving along rapidly.

The imitation poppies, made famous after World War I, will be sold on the streets here throughout the day, May 2, by Auxiliary members and Campfire Girls. Made by hospitalized and disabled veterans, the poppies are sold to raise funds for child welfare and veteran's activities.

Cass County Agent Clarence Eszmadeke of Weeping Water was in Plattsmouth Monday.
