

Charter Members Recognized On Clubs 15th Anniversary

AVOCA Special—Golden Rod Garden club observed its 15th anniversary with a special tea and program at the church parlors on April 14th. About 40 members and guests attended.

Charter members, Mrs. Albert Sill, Mrs. J. H. F. Ruhge and Miss Bertha Neumeister were recognized by Mrs. Lois Tefft. Mrs. True Harmon, another charter member, was unable to be present because of illness. A memorial was read for Mrs. Ed Terrel, Mrs. Albert Schutz and Mrs. Ed Morley.

Letters, received from Mrs. George Schachley of Versailles, Mo., and Mrs. Robert Hall of St. Petersburg, Florida, were read, and the work of the club for the past 15 years was reviewed by past presidents.

Each member had a special guest for the day and also had an active part in the program. The present membership includes Mrs. Paul Linhardt, Mrs. Ernest Emshoff, Mrs. Fred Meyer, Mrs. John Emshoff, Mrs. Elmer Hennings, Mrs. Hans Jensen, Mrs. J. H. F. Ruhge, Mrs. Louis Ruhge, Mrs. True Harmon, Mrs. John Wolph, Mrs. William Kepler, Mrs. Harry Michle, Mrs. Lois Tefft, Mrs. Caroline Marquardt, Miss Bertha Neumeister and Mrs. Albert Sill.

Past members attending were Mrs. Will Baier of Lincoln and Mrs. Edith Wessel of Omaha.

Also present were Mrs. Ray Norris of Weeping Water; Mrs. Fred Koester of Idaho Falls, Idaho; Mrs. Nancy Carsten, Mrs. Maurice Ruhge, Mrs. Henry Dankless, Mrs. Minnie Neumeister, Mrs. Roy Ruhge, Mrs. Calvin Carsten, Mrs. George Meyer, Mrs. Ernest Haveman, Mrs. Elvin Emshoff, Mrs. Harold Dunke, Mrs. Ernest Jensen, Mrs. Elmer Hallstrom, Mrs. Julia Michle, Mrs. Kenneth Essel and Mrs. Elmer Kepler. Each was presented a corsage.

Pink snapdragons and greens, with gladiolus bulbs as favors decorated the serving table.

Mrs. Perry Presides At Presbyterial 73rd Conference

Mrs. Virgil M. Perry of Plattsmouth presided as nearly 250 women of the Nebraska City Presbyterial Society met in Lincoln for their 73rd annual conference Friday.

At the conference Mrs. Florence E. Ludy, area secretary of the board of National Missions, spoke on "Men Redeemed and Free".

At the annual conference, ladies named a district vice president, missionary education and literary head, and named a number of other officers to fill out terms.

In addition to Mrs. Perry, president, Plattsmouth is also represented by Mrs. Dean Dunham, secretary.

Fairview Woman's Club Meets At Thomason Home

Fairview Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. E. B. Thomason with Mrs. Eugene Meisinger assisting. Due to bad weather, only eight members and two visitors were present.

The lesson on Hair Beauty was presented by Mrs. John Terryberry and the club planned its tour for Thursday, May 21 to the Iris gardens and other places of interest in Omaha.

Club members also assisted Mrs. Evelyn Franke with the recent Easter seal sale for crippled children's home.

Members also expressed pleasure that one of the club members, Mrs. Herman Hennings, is home again after undergoing surgery.

The group's next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Glen Wetenkamp May 14 with Mrs. Leon Bond assisting. A plant exchange is planned.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Miss Lohnes in Water Follies

Miss Mary Jo Lohnes of Plattsmouth, freshman at Doane College, is a member of the Doane College Dolphins, women's swimming organization, which will present the "Aqua Follies" at the college swimming pool.

The follies is an annual presentation of the swimming group. Miss Lohnes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lohnes.

World Traveler Tells Experience To W. S. C. S.

UNION (Special)—The Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the country home of Mrs. Jane Paasch on last Wednesday afternoon, April 22nd. In the absence of the president, the vice president, Mrs. Robert Harrah, Sr., conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Ruth Mougey Worrell of Columbus, Ohio, who is visiting the Mougey and Cross families this week, was a guest. She is a cousin of Mr. Lewis Mougey, Iva Mougey and Mrs. Carl Cross.

Mrs. Worrell has just returned from a six months trip around the world. She has visited 18 countries during the six months. She gave a most interesting talk of her travels and of the great things she has seen in the countries of our help, where so many have none of the blessings that we Americans enjoy. She spent Christmas in Bethlehem where the Christ was born. In her travels she met the Crown Prince of Japan, who was journeying to attend the coronation in June. She spent much time in homes of missionaries as she visited these many places of interest.

Mrs. Paasche served a delicious lunch of pie alamide and coffee. The next hostess will be Mrs. L. B. Mougey.

Poppy Day Poster Contest Winners Named By Auxiliary

Announcement of poppy poster contest winners, an address by Sheriff Tom Solomon, plans for letting Veteran hospital patients and announcement of initiation of a Junior Auxiliary unit were highlights of the American Legion Auxiliary meeting Thursday night.

Poster winners were Sandra Rainey, first; and Elmer Goehner, second, in the 4th to 6th grade class; and Sandra Young, first; and Marilyn Beck, second, in the 7th to 9th grade class. Posters went on display in stores here over the week end announcing the Auxiliary's poppy sale on May 2. Judges were Mrs. Verna Perry, Mrs. Agnes Uhlk and Mrs. Vera Warga.

Poppy sale chairman, Mrs. Mary Jane Dunlap, also called attention to the poppy sale and urged members to participate as freely as possible. The group will have its headquarters in the former Junior building and will have a Poppy window decorated at the Gas Company office. A quiz program on poppies was conducted by Mrs. Dunlap and Bee Brothers.

In an address by Sheriff Solomon, Auxiliary members were told that 90 per cent of juvenile delinquency is due to adult delinquency. The Sheriff explained that broken homes are a leading cause of delinquency among children. Parents depend on law enforcement officers to correct their children, he explained. Solomon also asked the Auxiliary to investigate juvenile cases more closely and to keep his office informed.

Also at the session, Auxiliary members were praised for their participation in County-Government Day at which they prepared and served a noon lunch. Co-chairman for the event were Mrs. Ann Krings and Mrs. Lavetta Baumgart. Mrs. Edna Cooley and Aleda Bourck were kitchen chairmen.

Announcement was also made that the Junior Auxiliary group would be initiated on April 24th. Bee Brothers is junior chairman. Twelve members, including the three month old Nancy Ann Nielsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nielsen, were to be initiated. Expected to attend the initiation were Mrs. Violet Attebery, district president, and Mrs. Mary Gobelman, district secretary, both of Union.

Auxiliary members also voted to hold a party at the Omaha Veterans hospital and money for prizes was approved. The group voted to donate $5 to the American Red Cross and heard a request from Mrs. Emma McClure, child welfare chairman, that members knit sweaters to be sent to Korea.

Mrs. Vera Warga was named to select a book to be presented to the library in honor of Korean veterans. Mrs. Joe Zastera, Auxiliary member at Louisville, now residing here, was a guest.

Hostesses at the refreshment period were Mrs. Fred Felthousen, Mrs. Pearl Kneer, Mrs. Charlotte Gall, Mrs. Cora Baumgart, Mrs. Ed Steppat and Mrs. Rose Mary Steppat.

Junior Auxiliary Group Initiated Here Friday Night

In an impressive ceremony at the home of Mrs. Sophia Wolever Friday night, eleven members of the Junior group of the American Legion Auxiliary were initiated by installing officer, Mrs. Leonard Brothers, also group chairman.

One member, Nancy Nielson, three months old, and youngest of the group, could not be present. Sharon Dunlap was installing sergeant of arms. Mrs. Gene Krings, Mrs. Howard Dunlap, Mrs. Lavetta Baumgart, Mrs. Glen McClure and Mrs. Wolever also assisted.

The Junior group will meet monthly at the place and time to be designated later.

Members of the new group are Sharon Glynn Dunlap, Nancy Hirz, Joyce Ann Kerns, Nancy Nielson, Joan Keeley, Mary Elizabeth Keeley, Julia Ann Chovanec, Peggy Timm, Janice O'Donnell, Valerie Gorton, Judy Baumgart and Barbara Kings.

Mothers of the group members and Auxiliary members present were Mrs. Jack O'Donnell, Mrs. Wayne Gorton, Mrs. Bronson Timm, Mrs. Guy Griffin, Mrs. V. J. Chovanec, Mrs. Lavetta Baumgart, Mrs. Howard Hirz, Mrs. Leonard Brothers, Mrs. Kenneth Dunlap, Mrs. Glen McClure and Mrs. Sophia Wolever.

Also present were Mrs. Violet Attebery, district Auxiliary president; and Mrs. Mary Gobelman, district secretary. Both are from Union.

During the refreshment period, Junior group members were seated at a white linen covered table, centered with a bowl of red poppies and four white candles representing Justice, Freedom, Democracy and Loyalty.

Hostesses were Mrs. Brothers, Mrs. Charles Wolever and Mrs. Sophia Wolever.

Mrs. Nina Upton Honored At Union Bazaar, Luncheon

UNION (Special)—Ladies of the Union American Legion Auxiliary entertained at their annual luncheon, bazaar and program at the Legion Hall Tuesday afternoon. Attendance was placed at 139.

The summer theme was carried out in decorations and wearing apparel and tables were centered with spring flowers. A two-course luncheon was served.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. Mary Gobelman, Auxiliary president, welcomed the guests and introduced Mrs. Goldie Brannon, who had taken an active part in planning the program.

Featured on the program was a take-off from the "This is Your Life" program in which Mrs. Nina Upton was recognized as a charter member of the organization.

Mrs. Jane Roddy, who introduced the honoree, also presented a sketch of the lady's history. Only members of Mrs. Upton's family that were able to be present were a sister, Mrs. Myra Freeberghouse and her daughter and a friend of Bern, Kansas, and a daughter, Mrs. Sara Whitmore of Elmwood. Other members of her family all sent letters and telegrams of congratulations. Many other cards and letters from friends and former schoolmates were also received.

During "the Life Story" Sharon Neels sang "School Days," and six Auxiliary members sang several old time songs. They were Mrs. Marion Clark, Mrs. Mary Gobelman, Mrs. Violet Attebery, Mrs. Martha Exline, Mrs. Ruth Walda and Mrs. Jessie Upton, with Mrs. Vita Snodgrass as accompanist.

Along with the songs, Mrs. Kathryn Harrah, Mrs. Gwen Scoles and Mrs. Betty Harrah appeared in quaint old costumes representing "the old time bridge club."

Mrs. Delbert Lindsey presented $20, a contribution of the Social quilty club, to the Auxiliary for the respirator fund.

Corsages were presented to a number of honored guests and two Gold Star mothers, Mrs. Curok of Union and Mrs. Coupe of Nebraska City.

Oldest guest in past years, Mrs. Emma Morton, was unable to be present, however her sister, Mrs. Eva Becker, received the corsage for her sister. A corsage was also presented to Mrs. John Ervin, for having the most sons in the service.

Prizes of small house plants were awarded to Mrs. Emil Knoll, Mrs. Lee Faris, Miss Amy Wright, while Mrs. Buelah Klimm won an angel food cake.

Senior Woman's Banquet Monday

Plattsmouth Senior Woman's club will hold its banquet Monday night, May 4 at the Presbyterian church. The banquet will be served at 6:30.

Senior club members are asked to make reservations for the banquet by calling Mrs. Glen Valley, 7158; Mrs. A. W. Probst, 4063; or Mrs. Carl Ohschlager, 4065.

Mynard Maidens Have Biscuit Demonstration

Mynard Merry Maidens met Friday at the home of Marjorie Grosshans. Roll call was answered by naming a kind of biscuit.

Mrs. Jane Roddy, who introduced the honoree, also presented a sketch of the lady's history. Only members of Mrs. Upton's family that were able to be present were a sister, Mrs. Myra Freeberghouse and her daughter and a friend of Bern, Kansas, and a daughter, Mrs. Sara Whitmore of Elmwood. Other members of her family all sent letters and telegrams of congratulations. Many other cards and letters from friends and former schoolmates were also received.

Demonstration of biscuit making was conducted by Marjorie Grosshans and Patty Toman, and members completed cutting out their garments.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Tom Grosshans.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Karne Tilson on May 1 at 7:30.
