Weyers Cattle Top Market

Livestock prices pointed higher Monday at Omaha. On cattle and lambs it was a continuation of last week's upturns, in the case of hogs a reversal of last week's lower trade trend.

Fat cattle Monday sold strong to 10 cents higher, hogs were mostly 50 cents higher and lambs sold steady to a quarter higher.

Among recent sales from shippers from this area were Elmer Sprick, 52 hogs weighing 252 at $22.50; Otto Fleischman 14 steers weighing 1203 at $21;

August Stohman, 16 heifers weighing 1048 at $21.25; Orland Stohman, 16 heifers weighing 974 at $21.50; Jose & Davis, 24 steers weighing 1184 at $22.25; and Otto Weyers 9 steers and heifers weighing 942 at $22. Weyers was tops for April 28.

Foreign aid policy

Secretary of State John A. Dulles, in outlining his views on our aid policies, has indicated that this country might give "erably less" money next year, grant more to Europe, and perhaps a little to the Middle East.

AIR FORCE CUTS
The Air Force has announced that it will reduce the civilian employe force by at least 7,000 persons by the end of the fiscal year. The cut will put the Air Force civilian employment figure at 306,000, as set by Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of Defense.

AUTO INSURANCE
Lower insurance rates for motorists who do a limited amount of pleasure driving and for young "part-time" drivers have been filed by leading companies in eleven states. "Preferred risks" will receive reductions in premiums up to 25 per cent.

A Classified Ad in the Journal costs as little as 35 cents.

BEES KILL MAN

Manila — A large swarm of bees attacked Hadji So Dainbang and his wife at a village, Mindanao Island, the two were walking toward a coffee plantation. The husband fled toward a stream but was stung so severely that he died before reaching it. His wife who fled in another direction was seriously stung but not killed.
