

Safety Stressed At Cullom Extension Club Meeting

The "Cullom" Extension Club met May 14th at the home of Mrs. John Halmes with eight members answering roll call. Mrs. Fritz Stemonett was a visitor.

President, Mrs. Fred Wehrbein, opened the meeting by leading the group in reading the "Club Collect." Group singing of "Daisy Wagon" led by Mrs. Marvin Peters followed.

In the absence of the safety chairman, Mrs. Everett Parriott, Mrs. Emil Schmidt stressed the importance on safety. She read an article on "Safety on Highways" advising the motorist to keep his eyes on five cars—the one in front, the one in back, the one passing yours, and the one you're driving. She also pointed out that national safety week will be observed July 19-25.

Mrs. John Schanbacher gave an informative and interesting report on schools and the different educational requirements in teaching. Mrs. Fred Wehrbein, Mrs. Peter Halmes and Mrs. John Schanbacher attended the national home demonstration week program at Weeping Water and reported on it.

The club has voted to assist with the bloodmobile when it visits Louisville in the near future, and learned that the 1953 club tour will be held June 18.

Following the business meeting an interesting lesson on wild flowers along with exhibits, was presented by Mrs. John Parkening and Mrs. John Halmes. A flower quiz was also held.

Another very enjoyable item was the annual flower plant exchange. Each member brought a flower plant and numbers were drawn for each plant.

The club's next meeting will be held June 11 at the home of Mrs. John Schanbacher with Mrs. John Parkening assisting.

At the close of the meeting, delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Mary Richards with Mrs. John Halmes assisting.

Mrs. August Stemonett, Reporter.

Elmwood Teacher Feted At Shower By Pupils' Mothers

On Friday afternoon, May 15, Mrs. Fred Linhart and Mrs. Fred Weiser honored Miss Alice Almy, 7th and 8th grade teacher at Elmwood, at a miscellaneous shower in the school dining room.

The center table was lace covered, centered with a bride doll and a large box under an opened umbrella. Decorations were in pastel colors of blue, pink, yellow and green. Gifts were placed in the box and later presented to Miss Almy.

The afternoon was spent playing games followed by a light refreshment period.

Mrs. Linhart had charge of the serving and Mrs. Weiser had charge of decorations and entertainment. Luncheon consisted of angel food cake frosted in pastel colors, brick ice cream, coffee and mint.

Guests were mothers to Miss Almy's pupils. Present were Mrs. Harvey Backemeier, Mrs. Chester Irons, Mrs. Clarence Eater, Mrs. Harry Ahrens, Mrs. John Wilshelm, Mrs. C. M. Toman, Mrs. R. K. Whittemore, Mrs. Will Brunkow, Mrs. M. Shelby, Mrs. Harold Krecklow, Mrs. Earl Kunz, Mrs. M. Newlin, Mrs. C. Johnson, Mrs. Sylvester Dunning, Mrs. L. Jicka, and the honoree's mother.

Mrs. Almy will wed May 22nd at Oakland in an early summer wedding rite.

Golden Anniversary Noted By Weeping Water Couple

WEeping WATER (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cappen of Weeping Water were married fifty years ago on May 13 and celebrated this happy occasion with a dinner and openhouse on Sunday, May 17.

Forty people attended a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lorenson. A bountiful dinner was enjoyed by all and music was provided by Mrs. Nellie Bickford and her daughter, Sus. Mrs. Bickford played the piano and Miss Bickford sang several selections. She also played on her cornet. Open house was held from 3 to 5 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cappen. A table beautifully decorated with a lace table cloth had the wedding cake on it with gold candles on each side. The cake was decorated with gold roses, gold leaves and white doves. Seventy-five attended the open house.

Mr. and Mrs. Cappen were married in the Methodist parsonage in Weeping Water on May 13, 1903, and have lived all their married life in Weeping Water. Mrs. Sylvia McCarthy of Anold, Neb., was the bride-maid and Mr. Wilbur Cappen of Lincoln was the best man and they were both able to be present Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Cappen have one daughter, Ida Lorenson, of Weeping Water and a son, Hubert, also of Weeping Water, and eight grandchildren.

Mrs. Russell Root and Mrs. John Meade sent a beautiful bouquet of yellow snapdragons. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Munkres and Mr. and Mrs. John Juul also gave them a lovely bouquet of flowers. They reviewed many other lovely gifts. Mrs. Munkres baked a cake for the occasion and it was decorated by Mrs. Juul. Mr. and Mrs. Munkres took colored and black and white pictures of the happy couple and the other guests.

Mrs. George Cappen, poured the coffee. Mrs. G. E. Young served the ice cream and Mrs. Nellie Bickford served the cake. Mrs. Willis Lorenson was in charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Cappen, a brother of Mr. Cappen, of Winslow, Neb.; Mrs. Stella Winchell of Webster City, Iowa; Mrs. Sylvia McCarthy of Anold, Neb.; Mrs. Cappen of Guernsey, Wyo.; Mrs. Barbara Compton and girls of Topeka, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Orval Wolfinger of Lincoln, Neb.; and Mrs. Eugene Reding, Doris Jane and Laird, of St. Mary's, Kans.; Mrs. Nellie Bickford Sue and Darrell of Holton, Kans.; a sister of Mr. Cappen; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Davis, Ronnie and Dennis of Rossville, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Rathbun and family of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gess, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gess, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mason, all of Louisville, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cappen, a brother of Mr. Cappen, of Lincoln.
