

1953 P. H. S. Golf Team

The first Plattsmouth high school golf team fared well in state tournament play at Lincoln last week, finishing eighth in Class B. Stuart Nielsen, individual leader, placed in a two-way tie for tenth in individual play. Shown with the golf team is Coach Merle Stewart, left. Squad members are Stuart Nielsen, Melvin Todd, Ron Schneider and Bob Back.—The Platter.

Dairymen Lead Statistics In Final Pin Figures

Alamito Dairy swept the statistical laurels as well as the league championship in Plattsmouth Bowling League play which ended last week.

The Dairymen not only registered 61 wins out of 90 games for a 67.77 percentage, but also posted the top high game for the season, had the most pins, had the top series and had three of the four top individual performers.

Alamito's 66,427 pins in the 90 games gave them a 738 per game average, 50 pins better than their nearest rival, Ernies Tavern. Six teams were bracketed in the 61,000 pin group, nearly 5,000 pins under the leaders.

The Dairymen had a high game of 899, against 858 for second place Plattsmouth Paint Store and 854 for the American Legion. Top series 2448 also posted by the Dairymen was 28 pins over the 2420 turned in by Tim's Bar. Wosters was in third place.

Louisville Dogs High in Cedar Creek Trials

Two Louisville dog owners were among the winners at the Missouri Valley Hunt Club's fourth retriever trial of the season at Cedar Creek Sunday.

Fred Reichart of Louisville exhibited the top dog in the derby stake. His black Labrador, Bart, rated ahead of the field in the derby division.

Lady, black Labrador, owned and handled by Morris Miller of Louisville earned a certificate of merit in the qualifying stake, which was won by a black Labrador owned and handled by Earl Hagelin of Omaha. Hagelin's entry also took the open-all age stake.

Printz Scores State Sprint Victory for Alvo

Alvo's speedy Dick Printz led the Orioles to fourth place in the Class D state track and field carnival at Lincoln last week end, scoring in both sprinting events.

Printz, who'll be back cavorting for the Orioles again next year, won the 100 yard dash and finished third in the 220, in Saturday's finals. On Friday, the speedy Oriole had taken first in his two preliminary heats.

The Orioles also scored as Junior Weichel went over the 20 foot mark for third place in the Class D broad jump. The Alvo 880 yard relay team placed fifth, edging Elmwood on time comparisons.

Outside of Alvo, the only Cass county teams to score were Avoca and Weeping Water.

Ron Luce, Avoca distance runner, earned fifth place in the mile Saturday. He had earned the state track berth by capturing the district mile title. Weeping Water scored as Rick Gibson rolled to third place in the low hurdles.

Seniors Saddened As They View 4-Year Diplomas

The dream of four years reached its climax for some 25 Tartan Cobles seniors Tuesday, only to be shattered by a piece of paper.

One by one the gowned seniors received the ribboned bound scrolls as they passed in review before a beaming audience of friends and relatives.

Then one by one they started opening the scrolls anxious for a look at that four-year diploma.

Inside was a college catalogue, the diplomas had not arrived.

Among the graduates was Charles "Lindy" Wolever of Plattsmouth. Diplomas are expected in about two weeks.

43-Pound Cat Is Landed Here

Joe Grebe, Jr., on a 40-day leave from the Navy joined his father, John Grebe, in landing a 43-pound yellow catfish in the Missouri river here this week.

Grebe arrived recently to spend the 40-day leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grebe.

EF/EN Jack Glaze will arrive Sunday from San Francisco to spend leave here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Glaze, and other relatives and friends.

Bids Asked for Graveling Road West of Murdock

Contractors' bids for gravel surfacing the Murdock west road, now under construction, will be asked at a state highway department letting June 11th.

Contracts for grading, culverts and bridges on the 9.1 miles between the turn on Highway Nebr. No. 1, near Murdock, and the Lancaster-Cass county line were awarded in July, 1952. The improvement is being financed with Cass county funds matched with Federal-Aid Secondary highway funds.

About 6,300 cubic yards of gravel are to be placed on the road when it is completed. According to engineering reports received in the Lincoln office of the highway department, both the grading and culvert work were about half done on May 9. The bridges were completed on May 2.

Former Residents' Son Is Seriously Wounded In Korea

Friends here learned that Robert Carey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Carey of Long Beach, Calif., formerly of Plattsmouth, has been wounded while serving with the armed forces in Korea.

The Younger Carey stepped on a concealed mine on March 30 while setting up a communication listening outpost on the Korean front. His left foot was blown off and amputation six inches below the knee was required. His right leg was broken and lacerated by shrapnel.

Mrs. Carey is the former Catherine Harris of Plattsmouth.

Masonic Home News Items

ALONGSIDE ANY OTHER BRAND OF PIG STARTER OR CREEP RATION

We Guarantee
THE PIGS WILL EAT
GOOCH'S BEST

in preference to any other feed. You be the judge. If they do not, just return the un-used feed and get full purchase price refunded.

Why Can Gooch Make This Challenging Offer?

FIRST:
Because GOOCH'S BEST Sugar-Coated Pig Booster is nutritionally sound on every point—high vitamin, high antibiotic, high energy—plus palatability.

SECOND:
A heavy coating of genuine cane sugar—sweetest available is used. This is the same sugar that is used in cake baking and in making the tastiest pastries. This coating is put on to stay by an exclusive melting process—not just loosely rolled in sugar which may largely shatter off.
