

Twins Candlelighters At Sister's Wedding May 23

Prior to her marriage on Saturday, May 23, Mrs. Arthur Tesarek was Miss Edith Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Williams, of Plattsmouth. The couple was married at the First Presbyterian church at Plattsmouth.

For her wedding Mrs. Tesarek wore white satin featured by a lace neckline, pleated skirt ending in a cathedral train, and topped by a fingertip veil of illusion.

Her twin brothers, Ronnie and Raymond Williams, were candlelighters. Mrs. Larry Hawthorne, of Doniphan, cousin of Mrs. Tesarek, was matron of honor, and Joseph Tesarek, of Omaha, was best man. Ushers were Jim Tesarek, of Omaha, and Albert Williams, brother of the bride. The Rev. Keith Delap officiated.

MRS. ARTHUR TESAREK and Mrs. Richard Schade played the wedding music.

The answers to everyday insurance problems.

By STEVE DAVIS

QUESTION: I heard recently that a thief gets money out of a safe by opening the combination it isn't "burglary" according to insurance companies. Is this true?

ANSWER: As a general rule that is correct. There are exceptions but usually "burglary" as defined in an insurance policy, must be accompanied by "forcible entry" or attempts at same.

If you address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.
