Attend Church Conference

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts and son Stanley Nehawke, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hollenbeck and the Don Hollenbeck family visited in Omaha on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hollenbeck and family.

Ted Hall is now Scoutmaster here. He and the troop went to Camp Cedars near Fremont on Sunday afternoon. The leader called home Monday morning that there was wind and rain to contend with but that no damage was done.

The pupil committee of the Methodist church, Harry Arnold, Orley Clements and Fred Buell attended the Hastings conference on Friday, laymen's day. When they returned the plan was for Dr. Story to remain as pastor here. At the church social hour with LeRoy Cook as superintendent, Mr. Arnold gave the conference report.

Mrs. George Koste has recently returned from the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene left Sunday morning for Los Angeles for a visit with Prof. and Mrs. Curran Shields and four children. Mrs. Shields was formerly Phyllis Greene. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hodges of Fairbury are taking over at the drug store in their absence.

Word has been received from Clara Cowger of Big Sandy, Montana, and she writes of the superfluous rains in that state, especially at Great Falls not so far from her home.

A recital of the music pupils of Mrs. Dwight Clements was held on Thursday afternoon at her home. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson, Harriett and Mary Sue are in Laramie, Wyoming, with their daughter, Joan, Mrs. Trotter and husband. They are building a new house for the couple there.

Clayton Linder has returned to camp after a month's furlough. His classmates of 1951 gave him a party while here. Lester Preston now works with the Brinton brothers at cement mixing.

John Hall is now employed at a bank in Lincoln. Mrs. Newlin recently returned from her Memorial Day visit at Perry, Iowa.

Mrs. Stovall of Syracuse visited here last week. With headquarters at the Sumner home she visited other friends among them Mrs. Hollenbeck, Mrs. Lloyd Miller, Mrs. Otto Stege and Mrs. Eldenmiller.

June Kensington is to be held with Mrs. Edna Fleischman.

Mrs. Sam Clements has been in Kansas City helping to care for a new granddaughter, Kathy Lynn in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bornemeier recently returned from a California trip.

Children's Day Program Is Held

"The Master's Garden" was the theme of the Sunday children's day program at the Christian church at the eleven o'clock hour. The program of songs, exercises and recitations was enjoyed. Iva Kay Irons was soloist for one group number. An offering for missions was received. Janice Miller presided and Dorothy Olson Miller was pianist. Much credit is due the teachers, Dorothy Miller, Myrtle Stege, Hazel Shelley and Amy Irons whose class brought savings for missions for the collection.

Lincoln visitors on Thursday were the Frick Enkeling family, Minnie Engelking and Laura Hollenbeck.

On Monday Cora Gerbeling went with her son, Ralph and family to their former Nora home to see the Clyde and Dale Gerbeling families. They returned home on Thursday.

Ahlene Fitch is home after more corrective surgery at Lincoln General.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stege and sons and the Blessing family were fishing in South Dakota a few days last week.

During the wind storm on Tuesday evening there was mild furor created by two bonfires presumably started earlier. One was at the Emmett Cook home where the fire department was summoned, the other at the new Drake quarters. The latter was put out by hose and buckets and no damage in either place was sustained.

At the alumni banquet Herbert Evans, a member of the 25 year honor class gave an interesting talk on the old grad impromptu greetings program. He is now a minister in Illinois.

On Thursday afternoon the P. N. G. ladies met with Laura Hollenbeck and Lillie Reber was assistant hostess. Blanch Klemme as program leader furnished amusement with the first or other interesting photo of each one present. In the absence of President Daisy Moore, Nettie Mendenhall presided, with 14 members present.

A former resident of Elmwood, Mrs. Dolly Beitem Wilson, passed away this week and interment was at her former home town, Douglas, after funeral services there on Tuesday. She has many friends here. She is survived by four sisters, one of whom lives at Friend and one brother of Douglas. Mr. Wilson's funeral was here some years ago.

Joyce Eldenmiller is assisting at the bank this vacation.

Leonard Parish attended the Cotner University banquet at Lincoln on Friday evening. Sixty four are enrolled in Vacation Bible school now. The final program will be at the Methodist church Sunday evening, June 16. A picnic at the park will close the season on Friday, June 14.

--- Extension --- Notes

Fertilizer From the Air.

Nearly two-thirds of the nation's fixed nitrogen supply comes from the air, according to L. G. Porter, Chief of the Fertilizer Staff of the Production and Marketing Administration with the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

He said that as of Jan. 1 of this year, there were 22 synthetic ammonia plants in the United States, having a capacity of 1,700,000 tons of fixed nitrogen per year.

There were 64 hydropunct plants producing 180,000 tons of fixed nitrogen in the form of ammonium sulfate, or about 11 percent of the nation's total. About 21 percent of the fertilizer used in the U. S. is imported, and the remaining two percent is in the form of organic materials. About two-thirds of the country's fixed nitrogen production is used in fertilizers.

Conservation Camp Dates June 15-19.

Plans are now underway for the annual 4-H Conservation Camp to be held in Chadron State Park, June 15 through 19. Nearly 300 4-H club members from all parts of the state are expected to take part in the camp, according to W. M. Antes, 4-H club leader at the University of Nebraska.

Highlights of the camp program include hikes, tours, parties, all forms of recreation, handicrafts, and special interest groups.

The County Extension office has complete details regarding Conservation Camp. The camp is open to any 4-H club member 14 years of age or older.

District Rural Youth Camp.

June 13 and 14 will be the time for the District Rural Youth Overnight Camp at Peru, Nebraska. Crafts, sports, Saturday night special, outdoor breakfast, worship service and a picnic lunch are on the agenda. Advanced registration fee of $1.00 to be sent to Frank Sibert, Assistant Rural Youth Leader, College of Agriculture, Lincoln, Nebraska.

A camp program is available at the Extension office.

U. S. INDIANS.

The Government has moved 2,500 Indians from reservations in the Midwest and Southwest and has found them jobs in large cities in a relocation program which is aimed at relieving the over-population on the reservations and with the eventual goal of getting the Government out of Indian affairs altogether.

Blood Disease Spreading Among Midwest Swine

A swine blood disease with a long name, and with a tiny parasite as the cause, is becoming a major summertime threat in the hog belt, the American Foundation for Animal Health reported today.

"Eperythrozoonosis," a disease similar to anaplasmosis in cattle, has been spreading more widely every year, Foundation officials said. "Veterinarians previously unfamiliar with the disease now see dozens of cases annually."

The condition is more prevalent in summer months, especially in sows, officials said. Insects are believed to spread it. Hog raisers should watch for pigs which have a tendency to lag behind the rest of the herd, and to rest when they are run. Anemia and jaundice result from infection with the tiny blood parasites which cause the condition.

"Medication and rest help speed recovery once the disease has been diagnosed," the Foundation said.

"An early diagnosis is desirable, to help prevent or reduce the danger of complications."

The Foundation also warned hog raisers to use care in handling affected pigs, to avoid causing easily-fatal exertion by the animals, or a ruptured spleen.

A Classified Ad in The Journal costs as little as 35c.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.
