

Platters Score Third Loop Win At Weeping Water

Scoring in bursts the Platts-mouth Junior Legion baseball team rolled up a convincing 13-7 league win over inter-county rival Weeping Water Thursday night.

Manager Lindy Wolever's Juniors scored five-run bursts in the second and sixth frames while blasting three Indian hurlers for nine hits, including two extra base blows.

John Blotzer, starting hurler, and Leon "Munk" Mullenax teamed up to give Platts-mouth its third loop win against a single loss. Blotzer went the first four innings, with Mullenax finishing up.

Platts-mouth overcame a 2-0 deficit with a five-run outburst in the second frame. Two errors, three hits, including Terry Wicket's double and a walk made it 5-2. Larry Pierce and John Carper also contributed hits during the rally.

The Indians had taken a 2-0 first inning lead on C. Stacey's double after Blotzer had walked Jim Stacey and Lühring.

Weeping Water climbed back into contention in the fourth getting to Blotzer for two more runs. After the pitcher Wade reached first when Wicket let a third strike get by him, two errors, two bases on balls and C. Stacey's second hit chased across the other two runs.

Mullenax came in then to silence the Indians until the seventh. Meanwhile Platts-mouth combed Wade, Hansen and Witt for five more runs in the sixth. Denny Ptak opened the inning with a single, Barney Elting and Fulton walked and Terry Ernst sent two runners home with a single. Wicket then drew a base on balls and Pierce lived on an error before Schuetz struck out. A walk to Finnrock and Mullenax's screaming double brought home three more runs to make the score 10-4.

It was 13-4 after Platts-mouth scored three more in the seventh. Fulton walked to open the inning, advanced on a single by Ernst and the sacks were filled when Wicket drew his second base on balls. Fulton and Ernst scored when Pierce was safe on an error, and Wicket came around when the third baseman bobbled Schuetz's grounder.

Blotzer gave up four hits but walked seven in his four inning stint. He struck out 10. Mullenax gave up two hits and issued four bases on balls while whiffing four. Nine Platters went down via the strike out route against the trio of Weeping Water hurlers.

Schuetz Draws Starting Nod for Tonight's Game

Jon Schuetz will draw the starting assignment tonight when the Platts-mouth Junior Legion baseball team plays hosts to Omaha Stockyards. The game is slated for 8:15 at Memorial Athletic Field.

Schuetz, bothered by a sore arm during the past two weeks, will be called upon to even the score for Platts-mouth with Omaha teams. He was the loser last week when Metz of Omaha handled the Platters.

Manager Lindy Wolever said he'll start Leon Mullenax Tuesday night at Millard. The Millard team is currently one of the hottest Junior teams in Eastern Nebraska.

John Blotzer will be called upon Friday night to oppose Nebraska City during the July 3rd celebration at Memorial Athletic Field here.

Midgets Blow Lead To Bow To Nebraska City

Victory slipped out of the grasp of Platts-mouth Midgets Sunday night as Nebraska City rallied for 11 runs in the fourth inning to take a twelve run lead that netted an 18-3 win.

Platts-mouth, tutored by Maynard Hobbs, was trailing only by one run when the Oteo county midgets suddenly exploded against Jim Pucelik and Winscott.

Hobbs' Midgets scored first in the initial inning as LeRoy Wilson walked and scored on Ed Egenberger's single. But Nebraska City countered with three runs in their half of the first and added four more the second for a 7-1 lead.

Platts-mouth put together two walks and three hits, including two doubles, along with two Nebraska City errors for five runs in the third to close the gap to 7-6. They went ahead briefly in the fourth inning scoring twice on singles by Pucelik and Vernon Kaffenberger and Larry Long's double.

That's when Nebraska City rallied for 11 runs and the game was over. Platts-mouth banged out 7 hits in the five innings against 10 for Nebraska City. Cole smacked two homers and a single for the Oteo county crew. Pucelik and Kaffenberger each had two hits for Platts-mouth.

Midgets Slate Two More Games

Maynard Hobbs' Platts-mouth Midgets are slated for two games during the coming week. They are scheduled for a return contest with Louisville next Wednesday night, July 8, and are also seeking a game here on July 9th.

The Midgets have won once, a 16-5 win over Louisville in their opener.
