TEMPORARY city fireman was jailed for setting grass fires. He probably thought more fires would mean more work . . . and a permanent job. Just shows it doesn't pay to be too ambitious.

An Ontario small-town council planned a spinster tax after boosting an already enforced levy on bachelors. Guess equal rights mean equal bites, eh!

A governor of an eastern state signed a bill changing a law's wording from "who" to "whom,"

which is about as interesting as changing "ho" to "hum."

When the Kremlin switched policy and released doctors accused of "murdering" Soviet officials, French Reds didn't have time to kill a published denunciation of the medicos. Bet it caused a lot of Red faces to get redder, if possible.

MAKING up a bed for most small fry requires athletic prowess plus the vigilance of a sheriff in a Western movie. As fast as the bed is smooth and neat, the small gremlin tears it apart. The sheets either land on the floor or engulf the bed's oc-

Coming to mother's aid in this uneven battle are some recent bedmaking innovations. First of these is the brand-new, printed, contour crib sheet that can't possibly pull out. Because of its fitted corners, no pinning or tucking is needed. It comes in these colors, too: yellow with green, blue with pink, and green with yellow trim.

Puckered nylon with an allnylon filling makes a light, airy, cozy comfort-quilt that washes easily and dries quickly. Through washings, it retains its shape. Furthermore, it is moth and mildew resistant.

This is ideal for babies who are allergic to wool. But it's also ideal for mothers who are allergic to the idea of slaving over a wash tub. It cuts down on the need for large stacks of bedding for baby and makes it possible to save on both money
