

Trilety - Balger Wedding Solemnized At Cincinnati

Several Countians At Annual State Picnic In Northwest

The annual Nebraska Picnic was held at Point Defiance Park, Tacoma, Washington, August 9 with over 300 former Nebraska residents attending.

Mrs. Birdie Hay and J. F. Queen were introduced as organizers of the picnic over 20 years ago. A musical program was presented in the afternoon. Officers elected for the coming year are F. L. Austin, president; George Cole, vice-president; Mrs. Irene Sammons, treasurer; and Mrs. Virginia Aulberg, secretary. The group will meet again in 1954 on the second Sunday of August.

Former Cass countians attending were Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sheesley, Mrs. Claudia Sheesley, Donna and Larry, W. C. Lake, Rose (Melvin) Rous, and Loyd Lowther.

Ben Noel and Betty Barrow were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Noel.

Jean Kline, Omaha, and Sharon Poulos, Auburn, who was her week end guest, were guests Sunday evening at the George Kline home. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kline, Nebraska City, Mr. and Mrs. George Poulos, Auburn, were guests Sunday evening at the Kline home. Sharon returned home with her parents.

Cass Theatre

Plattsmouth

Last Times Mon. & Tues., August 24-25

Tyrone Power, Piper Laurie and a big cast in "THE MISSISSIPPI GAMBLER" He rode the rolling river, staking his life and fortune! An all Technicolor picture which had stand out premiers in every town and city on the Mississippi river. It is your privilege to see this wonderful show at our regular low admission!

Night Shows 7:00 and 9:15

Wed. & Thurs., Aug. 26-27

Loretta Young, Jeff Chandler, Alex Nicol and Francis Dee in "BECAUSE OF YOU"

A drama which will hold you spellbound... one of the greatest woman's pictures ever made, a picture every woman will want to see!

Also Comedy and Novelty Night Shows 7:00 and 9:15

Also Comedy and Novelty Night Shows 7:00 and 9:15

To be Charitable... to treat with thoughtful consideration the ideas of others, though they may not conform to our own... this is a part of our creed.

Caldwell-Linder Funeral Home
A. D. LINDER Telephone 4111 L. A. CALDWELL
702 Avenue B ☆ Plattsmouth, Nebraska

Just a REMINDER!

Wednesday Is Double Stamp Day

Yes! You can enjoy EXTRA SAVINGS each Wednesday, with DOUBLE GREEN STAMPS given with each purchase of $1.00 or more.

FELDBOUSEN DRUG
"Your Friendly Drug Store"
Dial 6117

SOENNICHSEN

Phone 241

Ten-Day Trip Through Central And East Enjoyed

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wiles returned from a ten-day motor trip through Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky.

They spent several days at Cincinnati, Ohio, at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trilety, where they attended the wedding of their granddaughter, Nancy Trilety, on Saturday, August 15.

En route home they visited Mrs. L. M. Wiles at Anderson, Mo., and Mrs. Canna Finch and daughters, Helen and Grace, at Fairfax, Mrs. Finch is a sister of C. L. Wiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiles enjoyed the trip very much and report evidence of growth in most of the areas through which they traveled.

The bride's mother wore rose silk shantung and had a corsage of orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore sheer gray with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The wedding reception was held at the Mariemont Community Center. Following a motor trip to Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Balger will be at home after September 1 at Pinecrest, West Middletown, Ohio.

Subscribe to The Journal

Engelkemeier Family Has Reunion At Church Sunday

Sunday, August 16, marked the third annual reunion for the members of the Engelkemeier family. The numerous relatives and friends enjoyed a picnic dinner on the lawn at the Christ Lutheran church on the Louisville road. Practically all branches of the family were represented with many coming from a distance to enjoy the fellowship of the group. About 115 were present.

After the dinner hour, a short business meeting was held to elect officers for the year. Clarence Eigenkemeier was elected president, Earl Puls secretary-treasurer. A committee comprising Mrs. Ernest Engelkemeier, Mrs. Otto Lutz, and Mr. Ray Hill was appointed to complete the compilation of the family records. Miss Laura Engelkemeier was appointed historian. The records listed three weddings, six births, two deaths, and one golden wedding.

Following the business meeting the group enjoyed a short program arranged by Mrs. Dick Trisch and Miss Marilyn Lutz. The president, Glen Kraeger, announced the program. Frank Puls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Puls, sang "It Is No Secret", and "Keep the Good Lord Bless and May You". He was accompanied by his mother, Richard Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hill, gave a recitation. Linda and Norma Martin, daughters of

Junior Legion Auxiliary Planning Talent Program

Junior American Legion Auxiliary held an interesting meeting Thursday night at the home of Julie Chovanec with a large attendance reported. The meeting was conducted by Peggy Timm in the absence of Joyce Kerns, junior chairman.

Colors were advanced by the sergeant at arms, Valerie Gorton, to open the meeting, and a prayer was given by Julie Chovanec, chaplain. The group sang the "Star Spangled Banner".

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Secretary Barbara Krings and the treasurer's report was given by Nancy Hirz, Janice O'Donnell, chairman of the sick committee reported on sending cards to members that have been ill and discussion was held on various projects planned for the year.

Members are making scrap books to be sent to Children's Memorial hospital, and a talent program will be held at the next meeting, when each member will bring a guest.

New members, Carol Schreiner and Joyce McClanahan, were introduced and a traveling quiz program was won by Julie Chovanec. Sponsors of the group are Mrs. Sophia Wolever and Mrs. Don Warga.

With retiring of the colors and group singing of "America" the meeting adjourned and a refreshment period was enjoyed. Mrs. V. J. Chovanec and Julie served a luncheon of chicken salad, sandwiches, potato chips, hot chocolate, mints and nuts. Members were seated at a gold covered table centered with assorted flowers. Assisting with the Junior group were Mrs. Sophia Wolever, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Chovanec. Gary Chovanec was a guest.

Members are packing a box of clothing and supplies for the Rocky Box Mission center in West Virginia.

Delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. E. B. Thomsen.

The Society, together with the Brotherhood, recently surprised Dr. Lentz on his birthday with a picnic supper.

Lutheran Women's Society Meets At Church Recently

The Women's Missionary Society of Christ Lutheran church met in the church parlors with the lesson, "What's New on Your Reading List," being presented by Mrs. A. B. Lentz.

Members are packing a box of clothing and supplies for the Rocky Box Mission center in West Virginia.

Delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. E. B. Thomsen.

The Society, together with the Brotherhood, recently surprised Dr. Lentz on his birthday with a picnic supper.

Members are packing a box of clothing and supplies for the Rocky Box Mission center in West Virginia.

Delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. E. B. Thomsen.

The Society, together with the Brotherhood, recently surprised Dr. Lentz on his birthday with a picnic supper.

Members are packing a box of clothing and supplies for the Rocky Box Mission center in West Virginia.

Kentucky Stables Interest Families On Recent Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Wiles, Janice and Alan, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grosshans with Jim, Marjorie and Teddy have returned from Cincinnati, Ohio, where they were in attendance at the wedding of Miss Nancy Trilety on August 15.

The Misses Janice Wiles and Marjorie Grosshans were participants in the wedding ceremony. They are cousins of the bride and served as bridesmaids.

The Plattsmouth families returned home via Lexington, Kentucky, and viewed many interesting stables and farms of famous horses of Kentucky Derby entries. They were also impressed with the large tobacco fields.

Members of the family coming from a distance include: Martha Gerards, Wichita, Kansas; Marjorie and Walter Meyer, North Kansas City, Missouri; George Gerards, Jr., Jasper, Indiana; George and Waldo Gerards, Wichita, Kansas; Mrs. Mary Ragoss of Breckenridge, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howe of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Engelmeyer of Lincoln; Laura Ringwood of Minneapolis, Minnesota; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Puls of Omaha; Mrs. and Mrs. Marvin Panetz of Lincoln; Mrs. Minnie Puls of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gray of Seward; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bentz and Gaylon of Garber, Oklahoma and Don Engelkemeier of Newkirk, Oklahoma.

The oldest member of the family attending was Mr. Carl Engelkemeier of Louisville. The youngest member was Little Miss Cynthia Pollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pollard, of Plattsmouth. It was agreed to hold a reunion again in 1954.

The Catholic Daughters of America project of painting the apartments for the Sisters of the Ursuline Order at St. John's school has been completed.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. F. I. Rea, volunteers worked during the day and during the evenings to repaint the rooms in a color scheme that designated a feeling of warmth and cheerfulness.

The members unable to offer any manual labor contributed their share by monetary donations.

This project was completed shortly before the return of the Sisters of the Ursuline Order, who have arrived to assume their duties at St. John's school for the ensuing year.

Mrs. Oren Pollard returned Sunday from Lincoln General hospital where she was a surgery patient.

PANKONIN
PLUMBING and HEATING
for Every Need
Phone 257
620 First Ave.

District V. F. W. Auxiliary Will Meet In Plattsmouth

District 6, Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, met at Crest View Lodge at Papillion Sunday with a very good attendance. Mrs. Dale Bowman of Plattsmouth, district president, conducted the meeting.

Honors were bestowed upon Mrs. Florence Whipple of Nebraska City, department junior vice-president, who is also district treasurer.

It was the first meeting presided over by new officers, who were installed last May. At the next meeting, to be held at Plattsmouth, an all-day session will be featured by a school of instruction in the afternoon.

The district membership gavel will be presented to the unit to reach 100 percent of its membership quota first.

Units represented at the meeting were Plattsmouth, Nebraska City, Falls City, Bellevue, Syracuse and Papillion. Attending from Plattsmouth besides Mrs. Bowman were Hazel Fitch, Mrs. Lloyd Fitch, Mrs. Don Warga and Mrs. Sophia Wolever.

Following discussion of future district activities and reading and filing of communications, refreshments were served by the host unit.

Earl Dyer, Employment Service interviewer in charge of the local office.

Jobs included laborers, nurse aides, truck mechanic, cook, counterman, stock clerk, automobile salesman, office clerks (male), grocery clerks, and surveyors.

There is no social directory in the wilderness. —Henry VanDyke.

Multiple Sclerosis Donors Listed From Plattsmouth

The MS Informer, publication of the Nebraska chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, reports in its August publication that Mrs. Lyle Ladd of Plattsmouth, local chairman, collected $19.03 from canisters placed in business places here.

It also lists the Plattsmouth Navy Mothers Club and T. H. Pollock as contributors to the Nebraska chapter this year.

Twenty-Two Job Openings Listed At Plattsmouth

Jobs for 22 workers in Plattsmouth and vicinity and representing a variety of occupations are currently open, according to

Earl Dyer, Employment Service interviewer in charge of the local office.

Jobs included laborers, nurse aides, truck mechanic, cook, counterman, stock clerk, automobile salesman, office clerks (male), grocery clerks, and surveyors.

There is no social directory in the wilderness. —Henry VanDyke.

Multiple Sclerosis Donors Listed From Plattsmouth

The MS Informer, publication of the Nebraska chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, reports in its August publication that Mrs. Lyle Ladd of Plattsmouth, local chairman, collected $19.03 from canisters placed in business places here.

It also lists the Plattsmouth Navy Mothers Club and T. H. Pollock as contributors to the Nebraska chapter this year.

Twenty-Two Job Openings Listed At Plattsmouth

Jobs for 22 workers in Plattsmouth and vicinity and representing a variety of occupations are currently open, according to

Earl Dyer, Employment Service interviewer in charge of the local office.

Jobs included laborers, nurse aides, truck mechanic, cook, counterman, stock clerk, automobile salesman, office clerks (male), grocery clerks, and surveyors.

There is no social directory in the wilderness. —Henry VanDyke.

Now you Know!

The answers to everyday insurance problems. By STEVE DAVIS

QUESTION: Is it possible to get insurance covering our accounts receivable and other valuable store records?

ANSWER: Yes, special policies covering that specific type of loss are written. Also other general loss policies may be endorsed to cover the loss of accounts or valuable papers. Better see a good insurance agent with your particular problem.

If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.

STEVE DAVIS
Phone 6111
2nd Floor Bank Bldg.
5th & Main Plattsmouth

Command Performance!
You've Asked & Asked For More!

Giant 15 X 15 Inch Washcloths

Imagine!
Thick, thirsty cloths made by Cannon Mills in white, pink and aqua Now a dollar a dozen!

$1 DOZ.

Limited Quantity! Don't Delay!

Soennichsen's
Quality Costs Less at Soennichsens