

Funeral Services Held Sunday for Mrs. Art Smith

Funeral services for Mrs. Rachel Mae Smith, resident of Plattsmouth for over thirty years, were held Sunday afternoon at Caldwell-Linder Funeral chapel with Rev. J. W. Taenzler of Omaha, formerly of Plattsmouth, officiating.

Mrs. Smith died at a nursing home at Weeping Water last Thursday evening, September 3, following a two-year illness. She was 69 years old.

At the final rites Lois Boruff and Earlin Fein were musicians, accompanied by Mildred Hall. Casket bearers were Clyde Bragg, Roy Stine, Carl Carlberg, Vern Hendrichs, Lester Spangler and Glen Phillips. Burial was in the Emerson, Iowa cemetery.

Born May 15, 1884, at Henderson, Ia., the daughter of James and Rebecca Haygood, she was married to Arthur Smith on July 3, 1902, at Macadonia, Ia. They moved to Plattsmouth in 1920 and observed their golden wedding anniversary in 1952.

The Smiths had resided at Carson, Ia., prior to coming to Plattsmouth. Mrs. Smith was a member of the Christian church. Surviving are her husband, Arthur, of Plattsmouth; one grandchild and one great grandchild.

Three children, Allyson Arthur, Venjel Delore and Gertrude Grace, preceded her in death.

Caldwell-Linder Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Granddaughter Is Polio Victim

Sandra Jean O'Brien, 5, daughter of Master Sergeant and Mrs. Coleman O'Brien, recently returned from England, is reportedly showing improvement and getting along fine at a Denver army hospital with polio after being flown here from England. Sandra is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Winters of Plattsmouth. She was stricken with polio last July 8. She has suffered paralysis to both the arms and legs. Doctors have advised her parents that it will probably be a year before the little girl will be able to walk.

M/Sgt. O'Brien was transferred to Offutt Air Base from England and is seeking transfer to a base near Denver.

The American Bar Association has called for a study of Congressional investigations and the effect of such inquiries on individual rights.

First Warders Use New Building

Miss Rosane Boenstorff

Miss Vivian Horeidt

Miss Karol Lou Kay

School started Tuesday for these First Ward teachers, just as it did for the First Ward students. But it is only a half-day proposition, at least for the time being.

Because the new First Ward school has not been completed, and since new furniture for the schools has not arrived entirely, the school was one of three to start a week late and under unexpected circumstances.

Teaching in First Ward school are Miss Rosalie Boenstorff, fourth grade; Miss Vivian Horeidt, third grade; Mrs. Joan Lage, second grade and school principal; Miss Elizabeth Davis, first grade; and Karol Lou Kay, kindergarten.
