St. John's Church Is Scene For Wedding Rite

St. John's Catholic church was the scene on Saturday, August 29, at 9 a. m. for the wedding of Miss Patricia Jane Kocian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Kocian of Plattsmouth and Lawrence Paul Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kelly of Omaha.

The Rev. Raphael Chonta of Plattsmouth officiated. Miss Kathleen Kelly, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Mrs. Patrick O. Shaeffer was bridesmaid. Both wore waltz-length gowns of turquoise lace styled with low rounded necklines and full skirts. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow mums. Vicki Boyle, niece of the groom, was flower girl. She wore net turquoise and a head dress of yellow pom poms, and carried a nosegay of yellow pom poms.

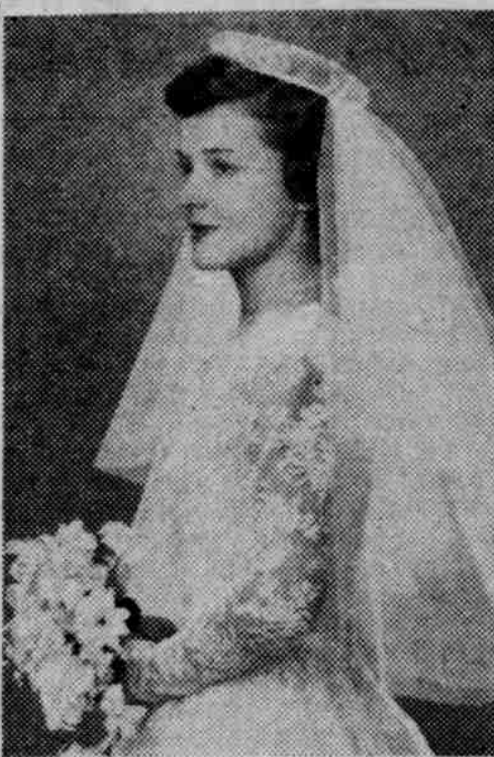

Cyril L. Kocian of Plattsmouth, brother of the bride, and Patrick O. Shaeffer were the groom's attendants and Charles Garvey and Raymond Serafini were ushers.

The bridal gown, a Maur original, of lace, tulle and satin featured a fitted bodice, rounded neckline and full skirt with chapel-length train. A finger-tip veil of tulle fell from a coronet of lace and the bride carried a cascade bouquet of pom pom chrysanthemums.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kocian wore royal blue with rose accessories. The groom's mother wore Alice blue with navy accessories.

A wedding reception was held at Hotel Plattsmouth following the ceremony with a one o'clock dinner at St. John's hall. At the reception, Miss Kathleen Feldhausen had charge of the gifts, Phyllis Bourck was soloist and Kathleen Feldhausen organist. Joan Alts had charge of the guest book and Janie O'Neil of Omaha cut the cake. LaVera Wagner of Dodge poured and Margaret Mary Collinson of Carroll, Ia., presided at the punch bowl, while Mary Lou McCarthy of Plattsmouth served the nuts and mints.

After a wedding trip to Minnesota the couple will reside in Omaha.

The answers to everyday insurance problems - By STEVE DAVIS

QUESTION: I'm borrowing a friend's jeep to go on a hunting trip. Will my own car insurance cover me on the trip?

ANSWER: Probably your Personal Injury and Property Damage policies are adequate but in all likelihood your Collision policy should be endorsed to cover your use of the jeep. Better see your insurance agent.

★ If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office, we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be no charge or obligation of any kind.
