

35 See Action In Junior High 14-0 Win

Thirty-five Junior High school gridders saw action Tuesday night as the Plattsmouth Juniors rolled to a 14-0 win over Wahoo on the Saunders county gridiron.

Cody McDermott broke the game wide open in the first second of play as he fielded the opening kickoff on his own 22 and raced 78 yards for the touch-down behind the best blocking of the night. Not a Warrior hand touched the Plattsmouth speedster. Larry Long ran the end for the extra point and an early 7-0 lead.

In the third quarter the Junior Blue Devils put together a 35-yard punt return by Bob Wilson, quarterback, and a 30-yard drive to send Wilson across the double stripe on a four-yard quarterback sneak. Wilson scored the extra point on the same play for a 14-0 margin.

The Junior's secondary defense was on its toes as they intercepted four Wahoo passes and did not allow a completed pass in 17 tries. Larry Long, playing an outstanding game, pilfered one pass and went 65 yards down to sidelines for a touchdown nullified on a clipping penalty. Other numerous penalties halted potential Plattsmouth drives.

Kenny Dasher, 87 pound half-back, had a 30-yard run on an intercepted pass called back and Wilson lost another nice run on a similar error. Roger Michaels showed promise in second half offensive play.

Others seeing action were Don Winscott, Toby Albee, Larry Cundall, Gary Horan, Bob Hut-ton, Jim Lamascus, Bill Long,

Stewart said after the Tuesday night tilt that all players gave a good account of themselves but will have some mistakes to iron out before the Bellevue game next week. The all-freshman team which opened at Wahoo will have to work to keep some of the eighth graders from pushing them off the first lineup.

Louisville Host To Weeping Water

Intercountry rivals, Louisville and Weeping Water, will meet Friday night on the new athletic field at Louisville to settle an important game in the Southeast Five conference.

Coach Darrell Brandenburg's Lions, anxious for victory after a weak start, will be host to the Indians for the first time in years. In past years, the Lions have played their home games at Weeping Water.

Defending conference kings, Coach Darwin Salestrom's Warriors can boost their conference record to 2-0 by turning back the Lions. Weeping Water stung Table Rock 19-0 in the opener and then bowed to Peru Prep 6-0 last Friday.

Louisville dropped a 12-0 opener to Ralston and traveled to Table Rock last week.

Atlantic sea games are scheduled to be held September 16 to October 5.

Devils Seek Return To Win Column Here Friday

Grid Mentor Gerald Clayburn, displeased with the showing of his charges in their 6-0 loss to College View last Friday will send them onto the field in search of win number one in Aksarben Conference play Friday night against Ashland.

The Devils will be seeking their second win of the season in three tries. They opened with an 18-0 rout of Auburn on the home field.

Unless they fall down, as they did in the opening half against College View last week, the Devils should find that second win. Ashland, however, could be bitter after two setbacks at the hands of Tecumseh and Tekamah.

Clayburn sent his first unit through light workout Monday night, since the Reserves were playing at Glenwood. He had 14 top regulars running through signals in the Monday night

County Retail Sales Increase Over Year Ago

Cass county is one of four Nebraska counties showing a retail sales increase in July of this year over the same month a year ago, according to the University of Nebraska College of Business Administration.

The county showed a 15.4 increase in retail sales over the previous, but a decrease of 3.7 percent over June was noted. Six of the 13 counties considered showed increases over June.

The report in the September issue of Business in Nebraska points out that Nebraska is falling behind the nation as a whole in the current business prosperity. Compared with 1948, Nebraska's physical volume is up 19 percent while the U. S. Average is up nearly 30 percent.

The drop in farm prices, especially in beef cattle, is the fundamental factor operating against the state. Business, however, is not in the state of decline since Nebraska showed a five per cent increase since last year.

Farmer-Teacher Crowned Kornland King and Queen

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidtman, Jr., she was born July 1, 1931. Educated here, she graduated from Plattsmouth high school in 1949 and from the University of Nebraska in 1953. At the University, she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and was an officer in the sorority. At the University she was also a member of the governing board and an officer of the University Council of World Affairs.

Queen Janis is a member of the Presbyterian church where she served as president of the Youth Fellowship for several years, and where she holds a 14-year perfect attendance record in the Sunday school. She is a past officer of Job's Daughters and member of Chapter F, PEO.

Not unfamiliar with the Korn Carnival, she was a train bearer for the first queen, Lois Troop Bestor in 1935, and served as maid of honor to Queen Dorothy Cappell Marbaker in 1951. She was the Spirit of Victory at the 1946 carnival, a duchess in 1947 and princess in 1948. She's currently an elementary school teacher in Pueblo, Colo.

Following the Koronation ceremony, King Glenn and Queen Janis greeted their loyal subjects at a reception at Hotel Plattsmouth.

Alvo Loop String On Block Against Elmwood

Alvo will put its unblemished conference grid string on the block Friday afternoon when the Orioles are hosts to a strong Elmwood team.

The game rates top rank in local grid circles this week end. The contest could play a deciding role in the final conference standings.

Undisputed kings the past three years, the Orioles, tutored by Bob Ihrig, will be seeking conference win number two against the Pirates. It will be the first conference tilt for the Blue and White of Elmwood.

Dick Clark, Bud Hermann and a veteran starting sextet will be counted on to carry the Alvo banner. Meanwhile, the Pirates will bank heavily on Keith Drake, triple threat. Orville Bogenrief and an all-veteran team to halt the Alvo domination. Both are undefeated this year.

Nehawka, which teamed up with Eagle in an outstanding six-man thriller last Friday night, has a non-conference clash this week.

Fed Schlessler's Nehawka sextet will seek win number three at Bennet. The Indians have close wins over Eagle and Dunbar to their credit, while last week Bennet was dropping Union.

Meanwhile, Eagle will seek to return to the victory trail in an afternoon clash at Union. Union has been stopped twice this season. Bill Reese's Golden Eagles can even their conference record with the win at Union, as Bob Gaston's Yankees go after their first win.

Here's how the Cass County Conference looks at this point:

Team	W	L
Eagle	0	1
Union	0	1

Pvt. Freeburg in Second Armored in Germany

Pvt. Duane Freeburg

Serving with the Second Armored Division in Germany is Pvt. Duane Freeburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Freeburg of Plattsmouth.

Pvt. Freeburg advised his parents in a letter they received Monday that he has just completed 14 days in field training five miles from the Russian border. He has been in Europe about two months.

Pvt. Freeburg entered the service in March, 1953, and underwent basic training at Ft. Riley, Kansas. He was home on a short leave before departing on July 26 for overseas. He is now stationed at Bad Kreuznach, Germany.

Freeburg's address is 502 1/2 Replacement Company, APO 42, Postmaster, New York, New York.

NO WONDER HE WAS HOT
Worcester, Mass.—A man, between 75 and 80 years old, who collapsed from heat prostration during the recent heat wave, was found to be wearing five suit coats, a vest, a heavy work shirt, trousers and woolen underwear.

SUN, NOT SUN, CAUSES HEAT
Ann Arbor, Mich.—Mrs. James W. Schulz was about to suffocate in her home when she accidentally looked at the thermostat. Her son, Billy, 6, had turned it up to 90.

Grid Scoreboard To Be In Operation Friday

Some two thousand Plattsmouth football fans will know the exact score, down, yardage to go and amount of time remaining when they view Friday night's game between Ashland and Plattsmouth high schools.

They'll get the information from a new 18-foot electric scoreboard erected this week and to be used for the first time Friday night. The scoreboard was a gift of the Plattsmouth State Bank.

The huge scoreboard has been mounted atop the new American Legion ticket booth at the east entrance to Memorial Athletic Field. It measures 18 feet across and stands six feet atop the 8 x 8 ticket building.

With arrival of the sign early this week, activity on the two athletic field improvements started humming in order to have the sign and building ready for Friday night's game. Construction company crews laid the concrete roof on the new Legion entrance and mounted the sign atop the building. Trenches were dug from the building to the south stadium from the where the control unit will be operated.

Addition of the scoreboard and the Memorial Field entrance put up by the Bank and the Plattsmouth American Legion post, grid fans here have practically every facility for enjoying a game. (That excludes toilet facilities of course.) The new scoreboard, along with the public address system, should keep even the ladies informed about what's going on.

Formal dedication of the Legion's memorial entrance will be held in a short program during the halftime of the Plattsmouth-Ashland game Friday night according to Legion Commander Russell Nielsen.

All Legion members are urged to be present to take part in the dedication.

Glenwood Spanks Plattsmouth Reserves 32-0

Glenwood Reserves performed like a varsity eleven Monday night as they walloped the Plattsmouth second string 32-0 in the opening contest for the local unit.

Eugene Shields' crew made one formidable offensive drive early in the first period, advancing within the Glenwood 20 for the only bright showing of the evening.

Taking the opening kickoff, the Junior Devils rolled on the ground and in the air to the 20 when a Denny Hrz pass was intercepted. That marked the signal for the Glenwood offensive to begin.

During the first period they rolled up 19 points against the undermanned Platters. Glenwood added another six points in the second period and finished the scoring in the third canto with another 7 points.

All 20 gridders making the trip saw action for Plattsmouth. The Reserves have a mid-October engagement with Weeping Water.

ARE YOU A PREGUNALEGIAST???

Baltimore, Md. There are probably 29,000,000 prepugnalegiasts in this country. That's a person who reads the match-book cover before striking the match. Surveys show that three out of every eight person who carry matchbooks can recall the message on the matchbooks in their pockets without looking to check up.
