

Louisville Blasts Indians 32-13 For Loop Lead

Louisville moved up as a challenger for Southeast Six conference honors Friday night by turning back loop foe Weeping Water 32-13. It was the second conference win for the Lions, who a week previous had squeaked by Table Rock 14-6.

Coach Darrell Brandenburg's Lions, showing improved blocking and tackling, went to work early to outscore the Indians, tutored by Darwin Salestrom.

Bill Nessen and Bob Davis teamed on a 15-yard pass play for the first Louisville touchdown to take a 7-0 lead. The crowd had hardly settled down when Nessen, taking a lateral from Don Dobbs after he had fielded an Indian kick, raced 70 yards to boost the count to 13-0.

Weeping Water fought back, however, and sent Roger Luhring over from the four yard line and then booted the extra point to cut the margin 13-7.

After a scoreless second period in which Louisville twice penetrated within the Indian's five-yard line, Nessen again connected on a TD pass, this time to Bill Workman for a 19-7 lead. The pass play covered 48 yards.

Nessen and Workman teamed together again in the final period on a touchdown pass and assumed a commanding 26-7 margin before Weeping Water finally tallied again on a Stacey to Art Plunkett pass for ten yards.

But it was Quarterback Bill Nessen who again brought the home town fans to their feet as he pilfered an Indian pass and raced 78 yards for the Lions' fifth and final tally.

While the inter-county rivalry always produces a thriller, the Lions' win was credited to what Coach Brandenburg described as "100 percent improvement of the entire squad." The Lions were definitely "up" for the game, Brandenburg said.

Nessen's passing and the sharp blocking and tackling featured the Lions' win. Roger Luhring, fullback, was the stand-out for Weeping Water.

Brandenburg opened with Bob Davis and Bill Workman, ends; Eugene Zeorlan and Larry Welton, tackles; Harry Armbrust and Herman Funke, guards; Jerry Proctor, center; Bill Nessen, Fritz Franke, Henry Alfrey, Jack White and Donald Dobbs in the backfield. Jerry Gray, Eugene Kobler, Frank Koterzina, Doyle Leroy, Mike Schuster, Lloyd Vogler also saw action.

Louisville travels to Waverly in a non-conference battle Friday. They are currently atop the loop standings with a 2-0 record.

Papillion Too Strong for Union; Yanks Hit 63-12

Papillion showed too much power and experience Friday for Coach Bob Gaston's Union sextet and the Cass countians suffered their third setback, 63-12.

Larry Hathaway and Dale Draper scored for the Union Yankies as they registered touchdowns in each the first and second periods in the abbreviated game.

Papillion scored 34 points in the first period, added 22 more in the second and finished the game early with 7 points in the third quarter. Peterson gunned the Papillion attack with Tom Mead and Ron Mead at ends; Bob Attebery at center; Jim Turner, Larry Hathaway and Dale Draper in the backfield. Norman Beccard and Pete Lutz also saw action for the Yankies.

Union plays at Elmwood Friday afternoon in a conference game against the leaders.

Platters Seek League Win At Westside Friday

Cooler weather at mid-week stepped up the tempo of Plattsmouth grid drills as Coach Gerclayburn prepared his charges for a conference game at Omaha Westside Friday night.

Plattsmouth will be seeking its third win in four starts and second in conference play against one loss when they invade the Omaha field.

Winners of Ashland a week ago to even their Ak-Sar-Ben loop record at 1-1, the Blue Devils will be seeking to go ahead of the 500 mark at the Omahans' expense. Indication are that an improved Westside team could be very strong on the home field.

With the exception of Denny Ptak, who injured a hand a week ago and was held out of the Friday night clash with Ashland, the Platters should be at full strength. Ptak will probably be held out of action again this week, although it's possible that he may be ready for limited duty.

Early week heat prompted Clayburn to cut the tempo of the drills to concentrate on fundamentals. Downfield blocking and tackling, punt returns and passing were on the early week agenda, while the mid-week play saw the Devils mixing it up in spirited scrimmage play.

With Ptak out of the lineup, Clayburn will undoubtedly have Jon Schuetz, who directed the Plattsmouth attack a week ago, at quarter. Jim Graves and Don Conyers will be at the half and Grover Cundall will run from the fullback spot.

The line also will look about the same as a week ago. Byron Finnefrock and Eugene Decker will probably get the center at ends; Charles Kerns, who performed outstandingly against Ashland, and Harold Demaree will be at tackle; Co-captain Eric Wood and Don Hutchinson at guards; and Elwood Johnson at center.

Echo, owned and ridden by C. A. Osler of Walnut, Ia., first; Hal's Stowell, owned and ridden by Joann Kroupa of Omaha, second; March Wind, owned and ridden by Anne Teigeler of Fremont, third; Meadow Starlight, owned by Bar-None Stables and ridden by Kathryn Schuetz of Omaha, fourth.

Trophies were awarded in each class along with ribbons. Show officers were: Archie Adams of Wichita, Kansas, Judge; Thomas C. Grosshans of Plattsmouth, ringmaster; Jack King of Lincoln, announcer; Orville Friesen of Plattsmouth, vocalist; and Richard Warner of Woodbine, Ia., organist.

Final Rites for Mrs. Nolting Are Held Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Wilhelmine Nolting, native of Germany and long time Plattsmouth resident, were held at the First Presbyterian church Friday afternoon with Rev. Keith Delap officiating.

At the final rites Mrs. Hugh Stander, Jr., was soloist and Mrs. George Jacobs was organist. Casket bearers were Peter Halmes, William Halmes, Verner Kauffenberg, Donald Steppat, L. George Born and Gene Nolting.

Mrs. Nolting died at an Omaha hospital last Tuesday following one-week hospitalization.

Born at Koenigsberg, Germany, on December 31, 1877, she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Steppat. She was married December 9, 1897, to F. W. Nolting at Plattsmouth. She lived on a farm until her husband's death, later moving to Plattsmouth. Mrs. Nolting came to the United States in 1890.

She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, Social Workers Flower Club and the Presbyterian church. She was very active in church work.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Grace Heitzhausen of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Ellen K. Spangler of Omaha; four grandchildren, Frederick and Mac Heitzhausen and Charles and Charlene Spangler; and three great grandchildren.

Other survivors are Wm. Steppat of Gregory, South Dakota; Mrs. Henrietta Schultz of Seattle, Wash.; Frank Steppat of Omaha; Mrs. Emma Kaffenberger, Mrs. P. A. Meisinger and Ed Steppat of Plattsmouth; and Mrs. Joe Timken of Beatrice.

Burial was at Oak Hill cemetery with Sattler Funeral Home in charge.
