McGrath - Coan Wedding Is Iowa Social Event

Miss Mary Patricia McGrath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jochimsen of Plattsmouth, and William James Coan of Denison, Iowa, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Coan of Marshalltown, Iowa, were married October 7, 1953, at St. Rose of Lima church in Denison.

The Rev. Dennis Clark officiated at the 8:30 a. m. ceremony before an altar banked with chrysanthemums and decorated in fall green, gold and bronze colors.

Miss Harriet Griese of Omaha, friend of the bride, was soloist, and Mrs. Earl McKeligan of Denison was organist.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Herbert Jochimsen, the bride chose for her wedding a ballerina length gown of white, fashioned with a tulle skirt and charming lace bodice, with long pointed sleeves and y-shaped neckline. Her shoulder-length tulle veil was fastened to a satin and tulle crown.

Maid of honor was Miss Patricia Ann Staffes of Omaha. She wore a gold iridescent taffeta gown fashioned with a wide neckline and ballerina-length skirt of impressed pleats. She carried a bouquet of yellow pom-pom mums.

Leo Coan of Marshalltown, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Charles Storm of Omaha and John Christensen of Denison.

A reception breakfast for 100 relatives and friends was held following the ceremony in the school hall. Decorations of green gold and bronze carried out the fall color scheme. Tables were centered with mums and asters.

Assisting at the reception were Janice James, Joyce Serross, Janice Hall, Mary Michelsen, and Sally Behan, serving. Mrs. Neal Moeller presided at the guest book.

For traveling, the bride selected a cinnamon brown wool jersey suit with dark brown accessories. The couple will be at home following a short wedding trip at 1520 Broadway, Denison, Iowa.

The bride graduated from Denison high school in 1950 and St. Catherine's school of nursing and Creighton University in 1953.

The groom also graduated from Denison high school and Omaha University and is affiliated with a farm implement company at Denison.

QUESTION: A friend told me I should have my whole insurance setup checked by a competent agent. So long as I keep up the premiums why should I have the insurance checked?

ANSWER: If you're like most people you've bought your insurance a little at a time over a period of years. Almost certainly a really good insurance counselor would find that by duplicating coverages you are paying too much for what you have or that you could get a great deal more for what you spend.

Mrs. Charlie Troop Observes 90th Birthday Quietly

Mrs. Charlie Troop celebrated her 90th birthday Saturday, October 10, recalling some of the many interesting things she has observed through the years.

Among those most cherished by Mrs. Troop was the steamboat trip to Plattsmouth 85 years ago. Mrs. Troop, only 4 1/2 years old at the time, recalls the steamboat ride down the Ohio river to the Mississippi, then up the Mississippi river to Plattsmouth.

She was one of few early settlers of the community to come here by steamboat.

Mrs. Troop was born in Virginia 90 years ago but was reared in Cass county where she attended school. She has resided in the same house here for 52 years.

For her birthday Mrs. Troop received an orchid from her son, Arthur. The orchid was a gift of Mrs. Wm. Gorder of Hawaii. She also received many other gifts and cards.

Among her most cherished gifts was the knowledge that her son, Arthur, had been dismissed from the hospital and came home that day.
