Seventeen At Union Woman's Society Meeting Thursday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met with Mrs. Earl Upton last Thursday afternoon, Oct. 8th. Seventeen members were in attendance. The devotionals were led by Mrs. Todd. Her topic, "Scatter the Good Seed". Her Scripture lesson was the 100th Psalm. After much discussion, the date for the fall dinner and supper was decided to be the 5th of November. Mrs. Attebery reviewed the first chapter of the study book, entitled "Spanish Speaking Americans in the U. S. Within Our Borders". A gift from the Society was presented to Mrs. Neva Upton by the Society president, Mrs. Valda Attebery. Mrs. Upton very graciously received the gift, with a few words expressing her regret to have to be leaving soon. Mrs. Earl Upton, the hostess, served a very fine lunch and the ladies thanked their hostess for a fine afternoon spent in her beautiful country home.

— Union —
Mrs. Mina Upton, Mrs. Jesse Dysart and Mrs. Elsie Frans drove to Bern, Kans. last Sunday, where they visited Mrs. Myrna Frieburg, a sister of Mrs. Upton.

Mrs. Andy Garfield and baby, Karen, returned from St. Mary's hospital last Sunday. The two Garfield boys think it's pretty fine to have a baby sister in their home, also to have mother home again.

Fellowship Supper Well Attended

There was a fine attendance at the Fellowship supper at the Methodist church last Sunday evening. When all had arrived, the fifty guests unpacked well filled baskets and soon had a bounteous repast ready to enjoy. In this task the primary department boys and girls helped arrange chairs and were "on the job" all through the evening. When supper was over, there were "piles of dishes" to be washed and put away. Again the girls waded in and soon had everything done. Chairs were arranged for the guests to enjoy pictures which Frank Anderson had taken during the summer while the Andersons vacationed for two weeks in western Nebraska and the Bad Lands. Everyone felt it had been a fine evening of fellowship in every respect.
