

Dougherty - Highfield Rites Are Solemnized at Chapel

Miss Frances Amber Dougherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Dougherty of Brock, became the bride of Joseph E. Highfield, son of Mrs. Ruth Highfield of Plattsmouth on Sunday afternoon at the Corvett Park Chapel. The Rev. Ward Merritt of the Christian church of Humboldt officiated at the ceremony on November 1, 1953.

At the wedding rites, Merwyn Newbold was soloist and Mrs. Chender Christy was accompanist.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin styled with an overskirt of illusion. The fitted bodice was fashioned with long fitted lace sleeves, a yoke of chantilly lace and tucked illusion forming a portrait neckline. A coronation crown of seed pearls held her veil of imported English illusion and she carried white roses centered with a white orchid corsage on a white Bible.

Mrs. Jack Gilman of Nebraska City, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of deep blue satin designed with an overskirt of blue net and a satin jacket. Her braided headband of satin featured a short veil and she carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Karlene Dougherty, sister of the bride, was candlelighter. She wore a floor-length gown of pastel blue lace and net and a wrist corsage of pink carnations. Cheryl Clayburn, niece of the bride from Plattsmouth, and Michael Brookhouser, also of Plattsmouth, nephew of the groom, were ring bearers.

Miss Clayburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Clayburn, wore a floor-length dress of medium blue satin with a net overskirt and a blue net headband and wristlets. Michael Brookhouser is the son of Mr.

Mrs. Joseph Highfield and Mrs. Robert Brookhouser. Jack Gilman was best man and ushers were Gerald Clayburn and Dennis Heng.

Mrs. Gerald Clayburn and Mrs. Robert Brookhouser assisted at the reception held in the club house after the ceremony. Mrs. Fern Johanns was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Walter Johanns and Mrs. William Highfield were at the gift table.

After a short wedding trip to Denver, Colo., the couple will live in Plattsmouth where both are employed. Mrs. Highfield graduated from Brock high school in 1947, attended Peru State Teachers College and for the past three years has taught school at Plattsmouth.

Mr. Highfield graduated from Plattsmouth high school, served two and one-half years in the navy and is employed at the Burlington shops here.
