European Tour Impresses Myrtle Wood of Wabash

Impressions of Europe were briefly told by Miss Myrtle Wood of Wabash here Wednesday, while she was in the city to attend sessions of the Cass County Historical Society.

Miss Wood returned from a lengthy tour of several western European countries recently. The tour was conducted by an Omaha radio station.

On the tour, Miss Wood seemed especially impressed with the countries of Holland and Switzerland, which she described as very clean and progressive. Her tour also included England, France, Germany, Italy with a visit to the Isle of Capri.

Thanksgiving Is Theme for Group Meeting

Thanksgiving in America was the program of the Cass County Historical Society meeting at Hotel Plattsmouth Wednesday noon.

Mrs. Etta Gorder presented a historical review of Thanksgiving, from the first one in 1621 to the present day. Included among her explanations were a number of state and federal proclamations issued during the years.

Food has been the big item behind Thanksgiving in the United States, and to exemplify its role, Mrs. Gorder exhibited a cook book, published in 1851 which told how to prepare turkey and to make pumpkin pie.

Pioneer Thanksgivings were reviewed by Mrs. Carl Balfour of Nehawka, and motion pictures of the group were taken. Miss Barbara Gering, second vice president, conducted the meeting in the absence of Dr. G. H. Gilmore, who is spending the winter in California.
