Christmas Plans Dominate Legion Auxiliary Session

Plans for a Christmas party, gifts for Yanks who gave, and Christmas baskets for needy families marked discussion of the American Legion Auxiliary at their monthly meeting Thursday night at the 40 & 8 club.

Resignation of Mrs. LaVetta Baumgart as treasurer also added to the group's business. Mrs. Baumgart's resignation was accepted by the unit and Mrs. Wilma Hennings was elected as her successor. Mrs. Verna Perry and Mrs. Ruth Krings were named to the executive board in other balloting. The new officers will be installed by Mrs. Helen Vroman at the next meeting.

Reports were given by Mrs. Vera Warga on the county convention held at Union recently and Mrs. Verna Perry reported on members who are ill.

Child Welfare Chairman Mrs. Emma McClure outlined plans for Christmas baskets to be distributed to families and Miss Ida Patton, rehabilitation chairman, announced plans for the apron and bake sale to be held in December.

President Mrs. Sophia Wolever conducted the meeting and extended thanks to Mrs. Agnes Uhlik and Mrs. Vera Warga for the Armistice Day dinner and party held with the Legion. A report by Secretary Mrs. Warga explained that 4,000 poppies has been ordered. Mrs. Mae Favors, membership chairman also urged that dues be paid.

The group has announced that gifts for the Yanks donations may be left at Feldhausen Drug, Conis Cigar Store, at the Plattsmouth Journal with Mrs. Sophia Wolever and with Mrs. Vera Warga, secretary, or any other Auxiliary or post members.

Christmas party plans with the post were considered, and a date for the event to be selected. Mrs. Russell Nielsen was named chairman. A gift exchange will be held.

Members learned from Miss Patton that the unit's Christmas assignment to Veterans hospitals has been filled, and that initiation for new members will be held in January.

At a games period at which Mrs. Ruth Krings presided, prizes were won by Mrs. Vera Warga, Mrs. Jane Dunlap, Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Wilma Hennings, Mrs. Ruth Krings, Mrs. Fred Feldhausen, Mrs. Sophia Wolever.
