Johnson-Leyden Wedding Solemnized November 13th

The marriage of Miss Janice Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Nelhart of Lincoln, and Robert LeRoy Leyden, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Leyden of Mount Pleasant, Iowa, was solemnized Friday evening, November 13, at 8 p. m., at the Fourth Presbyterian church in Lincoln. Rev. Edward L. Jeamby officiated at the ceremony. Graham Jeamby sang "Because, 'I Love You Truly'" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Miss Frances Lucke, who also played the wedding music. Escorted by her stepfather, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over tulle with fitted bodice and short sleeves with sequins. Her fingertip veil was held in place by seed pearls and she carried white carnations centered on a white Bible marked with white streamers.

Mrs. Robert L. Leyden

The bride's maid of honor and only attendant was Miss Janice Warboys. She chose a full-skirted frock of yellow net over yellow tulle and carried a bouquet of bronze-toned mums. Misses Margie Sue Johnson and Roma Kay Johnson, sisters of the bride, and dressed in identical ballerina-length gowns of pale blue and soft pink tulle, were the candlelighters. Wayne Rolfson of Eagle was best man and seating the guests were Don Howard and Fred Holbert of Lincoln. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for 125 guests. Assisting at the reception was Mrs. Graham Jeamby, Mrs. Leona McBride, Mrs. Jay Neal, Valeria

Heilman, Miss Pearl Spatz, Misses Sheryl and Sharon Lydick, Miss Bette Masters, Janet Sandburg and Alice Fletchall. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg and son, Jim, of Murray; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gregg and son, Larry of Nebraska; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gregg and Linda and Tom of Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gregg of Peru; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson of Omaha; Mrs. Floyd Fulton of Plattsmouth and Mrs. Jessie Smith of Plattsmouth. The bride is the oldest granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg and a great granddaughter of L. M. McMurray of Murray.

Miss Joan Norris Leaves Saturday For 4-H Club Congress In Chicago

Leaving Saturday for the National 4-H Club Congress at Chicago is Miss Joan Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Norris of Weeping Water, who will enter national competition at the Congress Style Revue.

A nine-year veteran of 4-H Club work, and for seven years a 4-H club leader, Miss Norris will spend a week in Chicago the guest of a pattern company which is sponsoring her trip.

The pretty, 17-year-old Weeping Water senior walked off with the top award in the 4-H style revue at the Nebraska State Fair in September and was one of 23 purple ribbon winners tapped at the 4-H revue.

She is pictured here in the forest green suit dress of heavy weight wool jersey with which she won the state crown. The dress has a cardigan collar and three-quarter length sleeves. Her crepe blouse is a soft, mint green and the coat which she made, is of green, black and tan plaid wool with a stand-up collar and five large buttons down the front. Her accessories are mushroom color excepting the turban hat which she made of matching green wool.

At the National Style Revue, in which Miss Norris will represent Nebraska, girls from all different states, respective winners of state style revue contests, will have a party and give a dress, revue in one of the Chicago theatres.

The blonde-haired Joan, who during her nine years in 4-H work has taken 32 different projects, is a senior at Weeping Water high school. Granddaughter of Commissioner and Mrs. Ray Norris, she was runner-up in the 1953 Cass County Fair Queen Title.
