

Masonic Home Chapel Is Setting For Marriage Rites

Bierls Enjoy Month Visit In California

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bierl returned home after a month visit with their daughter and family in Santa Ana, California. Reporting a very enjoyable trip, they also tell of visiting with many former residents of Cass county.

Among the countians with home their visited were the Lee Duggens, Russ Todd and sons, Ted and Fred Todd families. In southern California, which was beautiful with the flower blooming season in full swing. They also visited Mrs. Margaret Jones, who is recovering from a September accident.

Friends Unite To Help Mrs. Wurl Note Birthday

To celebrate the birthday of Mrs. Ella Wurl a group of neighbors and friends got together on Monday night and surprised her with a birthday party at the home of Mrs. Henry Engelke-meier.

Three tables of pinocle players provided the diversion of the evening with prizes going to Mrs. Blanche Meisinger, Mrs. Elizabeth Stoehr and Mrs. Anna Pittman.

A large angel food cake, baked by Miss Sophia Kraeger, was served with ice cream and coffee. The honoree received many nice gifts.

Present to enjoy the occasion were Mrs. Sophia Short, Elizabeth Hennings, Lena Trisch, Mata Lutz, Lena Hild, Blanche Meisinger, John P. Meisinger, Anna Pittman, Elizabeth Stoehr, Sophia Kraeger, Mrs. Henry Engelke-meier and the honoree.

Plattsmouth Junior Women's Club, request all members to bring toys, books and other gifts to Christmiser's Studio before December 18.

A very beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed in the Chapel at the Nebraska Masonic Home when Miss Eolla Elaine Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Richards of Decatur, Nebr., and Richard Hartley Cass, son of Mrs. Emma Cass, a resident of the Home, were united in marriage. Officiating at the ceremony was Rev. Harold Newton of the Latter Day Saints Church.

The Chapel was decorated with baskets of white pompons and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Julia Dungan was organist and played the wedding music and Miss Betty Richards, sister of the bride, sang "The Lords Prayer."

The bride wore an afternoon dress in beige with brown accessories, white hat, a corsage of baby orchids.

Mrs. Ethlyn Brewer served as matron of honor and Duane Pearson as best man.

Mrs. Richards, mother of the bride and Mrs. Cass, mother of the groom, wore afternoon dresses with corsages of white carnations.

After a short wedding trip the couple will establish a home at Fremont, Nebr., where the groom is employed in the carpenter trade.

It was the first wedding ever held at the Masonic Home here.
