

Christmas Party Featured By Eagle Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion and Auxiliary at Eagle and their families met at the Legion house on December 7 for their regular meetings and annual Christmas party. Everyone brought a covered dish and dessert, plus gifts for an exchange later in the evening.

The delicious supper was followed by the regular business meeting at which fourteen answered roll call for the Auxiliary. Bertha Caddy received a personal prize on her publicity scrap book at the 12th district convention held at Louisville and she extended her thanks to Minnie Bird for keeping the book current while she was in California for two months.

Household hint books were received by Auxiliary members and are now on sale at Eagle.

Ida Muenchau, Minnie Bird, Hallie Stewart, Evelyn Ransford, Florence Trumble and Mildred Trumble attended the Cass county convention at Union in November. Hallie Stewart received the door prize, a beautiful plastic apron.

The next meeting will be January 4 with Ida Oberle and Ida Muenchau as hostesses.

After the business meeting, the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games and cards. Ida Muenchau, Hallie Stewart and Phyllis May won prizes at games and Bertha Caddy received the traveling prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Stock and Miss Viola Everett were Lincoln shoppers on Monday.

Ed Craig, the barber, has been on the sick list this past week, battling the flu.

Greenwood Bows In Thriller to Nehawka, 45-42

Nehawka added its second win in three starts by nipping Greenwood in a Cass County Conference thriller Friday with a last half rally and a 45-42 win. Coach Ted Schiessler's Indians overcame one point deficits at the quarter and half mark to squeeze out the three point margin with a fourth quarter rally.

Abe Dick's Greenwood crew earned a 11-10 first quarter margin and held the lead at 21-10.

Wayne Wessel's 21 points wasn't enough for Coach Don Yocum's Cardinals last week as they dropped a 39-50 cage tilt to Dunbar in a non-loop battle. Wessel hit well over half the Avoca points.

The Cardinals fell behind early trailing 11-7 after one period and were on the short end of a 19-11 halftime score.

Wessel tried to keep the Cardinals in the game in the third period with three quick baskets but the torrid Dunbar quintet stretched its lead to 39-20 going into the final period. The 19 points by Avoca in the final period weren't enough to pull it out of the fire.

Wessel was high point man with 21 while teammates Dick Meyer, 6; Elmer Mueller and Dick Nelson, 4 each, Fred Ruhge, 3, and Bob Noerringer, 1, completed the scoring for Avoca.

T. Naurkal and A. Young led Dunbar with 19 and 13 points. Dunbar's second team was also victorious claiming a 23-15 win, but the Avoca volleyball girls continued their dominance with a 24-16 victory.
