Activities Mark Meeting Of Plattsmouth Women's Club

Standing room only was the order at the meeting of the Plattsmouth Women's club at the home of Mrs. W. L. Heinrich Monday evening, January 4th, with an attendance of 30 members and two guests. Mrs. Heinrich opened the meeting, bringing New Year's greetings from Mrs. Ruth Warp of Minden, Nebr., N. F. W. C. president. Mrs. Etta Gorder used the 23rd Psalm scripture for the devotion. The Club Collect was recited and Mrs. W. F. Evers, of the Patriotic committee, led in pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States.

The club recently voted to furnish the Ladies' Lounge of the Lions club rooms and Mrs. N. W. McKee was presented and told of the progress of this project up to date. He stated they hoped to hold an opening of this recreation room January 20th. He also spoke in behalf of the canvass to be made by the young people of the schools for the Oklahoma Band Wagon trip and asked co-operation in buying tickets to the musicals as well as publicizing this event.

The Plattsmouth Women's club is a sponsor of this project also. The members voted to help with the March of Dimes drive soon to start.

Interesting reports of committees were given and meeting adjourned for the program. Janet Weiss gave two piano accordion numbers.

Mrs. Marvin Brown, of the Brown Floral Shop had the program on Flower Beauty. She arranged lovely corsages which were pinned on the oldest grandmother present—the youngest grandmother and the hostess—Mrs. Etta Gorder, Mrs. Fred Feldhausen and Mrs. Heinrich receiving same. Mrs. Brown also made other floral pieces from the simplest three rose arrangement to the more formal centerpieces, all of which showed much artistic ability and knowledge on the art of flowers—emphasizing that "God scatters beauty as He scatters flowers—over the wide earth and tells us all are ours." A floral quiz was participated in.

Following this feature Mrs. Fred Bourck and Mrs. G. G. Griffin of the Ways and Means committee held a most successful Silent Auction at which over $25 was realized toward the Lions Club room fund. Following a social hour the hostesses served refreshments. Serving were Mrs. Wm. Woolcott, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Etta Gorder, Mrs. Mabel Engelkemeier, Mrs. O. Sandin, Mrs. Wm. Kraeger. The February meeting is scheduled at the home of Mrs. Milton Muncie.
