Nehawka Legion Auxiliary Will Collect Clothing

The January meeting of the Nehawka American Legion Auxiliary was held at the auditorium January 12.

Mrs. Hall Pollard, legislative chairman, stressed reading Legion and Auxiliary papers and magazines for correct information concerning legislation. She asked members to write personal letters and cards to their senators to help pass bills that will aid the veterans and veteran's hospitals.

Clothing for destitute children in the Philippines will be collected by the Auxiliary members as one of their child welfare projects for 1954, Mrs. C. D. Adams, child welfare chairman of the Nehawka unit announced. The work for the Philippine children is in addition to the knitting of sweaters for orphans in Korea, which last year resulted in more than 30,000 sweaters sent to Korean orphanages. Nehawka unit is asking members to bring the following articles to the February 9 meeting: hand knitted mittens, yarn, knitting needles, color books, crayolas, needles, thread, buttons, thimbles, zippers, pencils, comic books, scrap paper used summer clothing shoes and other articles for children between the ages of 7 and 10. Distribution of the material to the Philippine children is being handled through Claude A. Thorpe, Post No. 10, Clark Air Force base, APO 74, San Francisco, Calif.

Mrs. Ernest Kropp told of her duties as publicity chairman. Letters of thanks for Christmas packages were read from service men overseas.

RED TRADE

The Government's foreign-aid chief, Harold Stassen, recently disclosed an Administration decision to permit wide trade with Communist countries in nonstrategic items. However, he declares that the Government has put an even tighter clamp on trade in strategic materials and goods. Such products as cotton, rubber, drugs and pharmaceuticals no longer are banned for shipment to Communist customers.
