CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

The wholly spiritual nature of effective prayer which overcomes sin, sickness, and sorrow, will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday. Selections from the Authorized King James Version of the Bible and correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, comprise the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Spirit."

Scriptural texts include the following words of Christ Jesus from John:

"The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh them that worship him. God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." (4:23 the, 24).

The following correlative citation from Science and Health by Mrs. Eddy will also be read:

"To enter into the heart of prayer, the door of the erring senses must be closed. Lips must be mute and materialism silent, that man may have audience with Spirit, the divine Principle. Love, which destroys all error." (15:9).

Bible Comment:

Those Who Know Jesus Can Feel His Presence

IT was as the Savior of Men, the redeemer, that Jesus fulfilled His earthly mission. But the Gospels reveal on almost every page how the Savior of Men was also teacher, healer and friend.

Jesus was also the great Sympathizer, entering into the joys and sorrows of life, weeping with those who wept, but sharing the joys of a wedding feast.

He freely accepted hospitality and mingled with men, especially with the common people "who heard Him gladly."

We call Him the "Man of Sorrows," and it befits one who bore the world's sins and invited the heavily laden to come to Him for rest.

But back of the sorrow and tragedy of the sin that crucified Him was One who was neither reclusive nor ascetic.

He is not only our Savior, but also our Friend. He called His disciples "friends," and He is the friend of all who would be His disciples.

This continuing Presence and Friendship of Jesus is not a myth nor an emotional illusion.

Nothing is more sure than that thousands have felt, and feel the reality of that spiritual Presence.

It brings into daily life and experience the warmth and tenderness, the faith and hope, the uplifting word that helped and inspired and blessed those who met the Master in His earthly life.

But if one would have that experience of the present Christ today, one must know that Master in His earthly life.

And the one sure way of knowing Christ is by reading the New Testament, and especially the four Gospels.

service at the church Sunday night, but the congregation will meet jointly with the Wesleyan Methodist Church on South 10th Street on the occasion of the opening day of their two-week evangelistic campaign.
