Doris Eileen Johnson Is Bride Of Joel O. Breeding

In a late afternoon candlelight ceremony on January 2, 1954, Miss Doris Eileen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Johnson of Wahoo, recently of Plattsmouth, became the bride of Joel Oliver Breeding, son of Bennie O. Breeding. The service was held in Chichester chapel of Immanuel Presbyterian church at Los Angeles.

Mrs. Joel O. Breeding

Candelabra trimmed with pom-poms decorated the church at which Dr. William S. Meyer solemnized the rites. John Ford sang "On Perfect Love," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Prayer Response" and was accompanied by Clarence Mader, organist. The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white tulle with a stand-up collar, long pointed sleeves and double-over skirt of nylon net. The sleeves and bodice were fastened with satin covered buttons. Her shoulder length nylon veil fell from a sweetheart cap. She carried a colonial bouquet of white orchids and roses. Maid of honor was Miss Patricia Lehrey. She wore an ice green silk shantung dress and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses. Best man was Warren Kaffter.

Following the wedding, the couple met their close friends and relatives at a reception in Chichester parlor. Upon returning from their wedding trip, the couple is residing at 1529 5th Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

Elmwood Minister And Wife Feted On Anniversary

Band Participates In Conference Clinic at Wahoo

Plattsmouth band members started early this morning by bus for Wahoo, where they are participating in an all-day conference band clinic. Schools in the Ak-Sar-Ben conference are backing the clinic.

The clinic schedule today calls for rehearsals of two groups starting at 9 a. m., and continuing until 4 p. m. Groups are broken down into two parts, experienced and lesser experienced for the rehearsals.

A recreational period is slated at 4 p. m. with concerts to be evening features of the conference clinic. Both groups, experienced and lesser experienced, will present concerts tonight.

The clinic was under the direction of Robert Lowrey, well-known clarinetist from Morningside College at Sioux City.

The Elmwood Christian Congregation honored their minister and wife with a basket dinner in the church dining room Sunday, Jan. 31st, on their 48th anniversary of marriage.

They were married in Kansas and their first church was the same year in Oklahoma. Later, they were in McCook many years, Avoca, and the last two years have served the Elmwood church. Mr. and Mrs. Horn have 4 children, all married, in homes of their own.

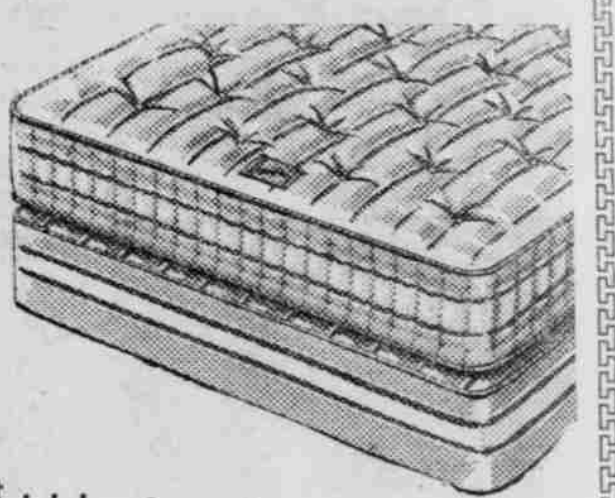

A short program was carried out following the dinner. Mrs. Chester Irons and son, Ronald Irons, sang, The Sunday school presented them with a gift. The church planned and carried out a very successful smorgasbord supper the week before. Mrs. Orval Miller, Mrs. Skyle Miller, Jr., and Mrs. Paul Husar were in charge of this supper.

The Ladies Council at their last meeting set aside a building fund to be used to remodel the present structure.

During the two years Mr. and Mrs. Horn have been in Elmwood many improvements and gains have been made in Elmwood Christian church.
