Miss Joanne Cecil Becomes Bride of John J. Glaze

First Presbyterian church at Plattsmouth was the setting on Sunday, February 14, 1954 for the nuptial rites of Miss Joanne Louise Cecil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley F. Cecil of Plattsmouth, and John Junior Glaze, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Glaze, also of Plattsmouth.

The Rev. Keith Delap, pastor of the church, officiated at the four o'clock afternoon ceremony before an altar banked with two baskets of pink and white carnations and snapdragons. Mrs. George Jacobs played the wedding music and accompanied John Jacobs, who sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of lace and tulle overlaid with a "V" neckline. The bouffant skirt was appliqued with motifs of lace and her fingertip illusion veil was caught with a Juliet cap of lace and satin. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, and carried a white orchid on a white ribbon.

Maid of honor was Miss Virginia Koenig of Bentley, Ia. She wore a Nile green tulle floor-length gown with tucked bodice and carried a colonial bouquet of coral carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Menges of Council Bluffs, Ia., and Miss Shirley Glaze of Plattsmouth, cousins of the groom. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor in shrimp color and carried colonial bouquets of Nile green carnations.

Richard Glaze of Plattsmouth, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Richard Gopen and William Cecil of Plattsmouth, brother of the bride.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. Miss Geraldine Huebner of Omaha cut the wedding cake, Miss Agnes Fitzer of Omaha poured and Miss Annette Troop of Plattsmouth served the ice cream. Miss Mary Leona Bintner had charge of the guest book and Miss Shirley Humerickhouse of Topeka, Kansas, and Mrs. Donald March of Plattsmouth, presided at the gift table.

For her wedding trip, Mrs. Glaze wore a brown knit suit with Brown accessories. The couple, after their trip to Lake of the Ozarks will make their future home at Oakland, Calif., where Mr. Glaze is stationed with the Navy.

Granddaughter, Polio Victim, Is Magazine Feature

Featured in the January 29 issue of the "Airman" is a pictorial and editorial story of Sharon O'Bryan, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Winters of Plattsmouth.

The feature tells of the six-year-old girl's battle against polio and her assistance in the March of Dimes campaign just ended. She is shown with her father, M-Sgt. C. J. O'Bryan, surrounded by a half-million dollars in dimes at the U. S. Mint at Denver. Other pictures show her with her mother at her room in Fitzsimmons General hospital being presented an orchid; drawing a picture of her new doll despite braces on her hands; greeting Debbie Dains, 1954 March of Dimes poster boy; and watching a machine stamp out new dimes at the Denver mint.

Sandra spent a month in an "iron lung" in England last summer before she was well enough to fly to the United States, where she is taking therapy treatments to regain use of muscles paralyzed by the disease.
