

Know Your Candidate

One of the communities pioneer residents will be among candidates seeking election in the city voting here on April 6. He is James H. Graves, 74, candidate for re-election as police magistrate.

Indorsed by both Republican and Democratic caucuses, the former mail carrier will be seeking his second term on the bench. He was elected in the spring of 1952, after serving for three months on an appointive basis following the death of his uncle, C. L. Graves, longtime city judge.

Born March 10, 1880, across the river in Fremont county, Iowa, Mr. Graves came to Plattsmouth vicinity four years later with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Graves. The Graves family farmed in the Rock Bluff and Murray communities, until J. H. came to Plattsmouth in 1920 as a rural mail carrier.

After 25 years carrying mail on a Plattsmouth route, Mr. Graves retired, but later returned to activity at the Missouri river toll bridge. He held the job for five years before being named city judge.

Forty-nine of the Judge's 70 years in the Plattsmouth area have been happily married ones.

Time Is Ripe To Organize Fire District

The time is ripe for creating a rural fire district at Plattsmouth, Mayor Clement Woster told the Plattsmouth Volunteer Fire Department Tuesday night, when the department considered its obligations in fighting fires outside the city limits.

Brought about by the department's plans to assist Offutt Air Base in an Air Disaster network, the issue stemmed from discussion of the obligation of the department at home first, and outside the city second.

The limited fire fighting power of the department and the growing limits of the city hint that the department must concentrate on protecting property within the city.

In addressing the department, Mayor Woster, also a fireman, explained that now is the time to lay the groundwork for organizing a rural fire district. It would be for the best protection of the city and would also insure rural farm families of available equipment.

Woster suggested that a committee be established to determine the best method for organizing a district, and that farmers throughout the area be interrogated as to whether or not they would be interested in the program.

The mayor backed Howard Hirz's ideas that the department must constantly be aware of potential fire hazards in the city. Growth of the community demands greater attention locally, the mayor said.

Countians Top Omaha Market With Stock Cows

Cattle supply Monday at Omaha fell off by a third from a week earlier, but total livestock run again paced the field.

Fat cattle trade was strong to mostly 25-50 cents higher, spots up more; hogs were generally steady to 25 cents lower and fat lambs sold 22 cents to $1 higher.

Among recent sales at Omaha for shippers from this area were H. R. Rogers, 6 hogs weighing 227 at $26.50; Leonard A. Born, 7 hogs weighing 203 at $26.50; L. B. Mougey and Son, 23 stock cows weighing 943 at $23.50; Fred Schick, 22 hogs weighing 261 at $25.60; Charles Ganz, 19 hogs weighing 218 at $26.50 and H. R. Rogers, 18 hogs weighing 233 at $26.

Price received by L. B. Mougey & Son for their 23 stock cows was tops for March 2.
