Early Hardships Retold as Legion Notes 35th Year

Mrs. Mollie Gobelman's memory of the early existence of the American Legion Auxiliary differs slightly from the reminiscence of the 17 past commanders attending a 35th birthday anniversary dinner and party Wednesday night.

Mrs. Gobelman, one of the earliest and staunchest workers for the American Legion Auxiliary, recounted a certain percentage of the commanders' tales of hardship, by cleverly injecting remarks that the Legion's hardships were the Auxiliaries' problem to solve. Her account, substantiated to some extent by the "grey beard" commanders, 1919 through 1926, of the Legion's 35 year history at Plattsmouth impressed the 100 Legion and Auxiliary members enjoying the birthday event.

Recognition at the party was paid to past commanders of the post, with each of the seventeen present telling their major accomplishment. Paying the rent figured into most accounts, with the Auxiliary paying the bill.

Commanders present included Frank Smith, first commander of the Legion, Raymond Larson, W. R. Holly, Leslie Niel, Fred Lugsch, Fred Herbster, H. L. Gayer, George Coris, R. T. Guthrie, E. O. Vroman, Dr. P. T. Heineman, Richard Peck, Howard Hitz, Donald Wara, Eugene Krings, James Begley and the present commander, Russell Nielsen.

A white linen covered table centered with a large birthday cake was prepared for the commanders, Legion and Auxiliary colors, blue and gold decorated the cake which was flanked by blue and gold tapers in crystal holders.

Special recognition went to Frank Smith who also observed his birthday Wednesday. Group singing was led by Mrs. Helen Woolcott accompanied by Miss Mildred Hall.

General chairman — Sophia Wolever. Kitchen—Mrs. Edith Akeson, Miss Ida Patton, Mrs. Bessie Ashenbrenner, Mrs. Vera Hentres, Mrs. Mae Favors, Mrs. Alberta Austin, Mrs. Jeanette Sla-heck and Miss Naomi Day. Entertainment — Mrs. Ann Cane, Mrs. Margaret Fitch, Mrs. Betty Jo Nielsen, Miss Mildred Hall and Mrs. Helen Woolcott.

Tables and decorations—Mrs. Vera Waga, Mrs. Verna Perry, Mrs. Ruth Krings and Mrs. William Hennings.

Games were enjoyed and beautifully wrapped gifts presented to winners. Remainder of the Legion birthday cake was taken to the veterans hospital at Omaha this morning by Miss Hall and Mrs. Raymond Larson.
