Iowans Are Guests At Ross Home

Miss Jean Comar and Roger Rental, Sioux City, Iowa, were guests for the day Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ross and Debbie. Mr. Rental and Mr. Ross were in basic training together and were also sent to Alaska where they stayed at the same base for the remainder of their time in service.

Mrs. Randall Switzer and Janice went to Lincoln Saturday. Janice entered the district music contest sponsored by the Federated Women's clubs of the first district. She played an accordion solo.

School, Village Election Nears

At a recent town caucus Alvin McReynolds, Gilbert Edmonds, Charles Bates and Walter Wunderlich were nominated for the town board for a two year term. Dr. Andersen was nominated to a one year term to fill the vacancy of Allen Hansen, who moved to Scotia, Nebr. Alvin McReynolds and Gilbert Edmonds are incumbents.

Mrs. R. B. Stone is on her way home from a trip to Washington, Oregon, California, and Arizona. She is now with her sister, Mrs. Henry Wheeler at Ponca, Okla. Her son, Chester Stone, plans to drive to Oklahoma for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Owens and family and Mrs. Harry Metcalf, Lincoln, were guests for the day Sunday at the Jim Sturm home.

Mrs. Maude Cornell has moved into the house recently vacated by Mrs. Agnes Aschcraft and Norma. The property was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warden.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Murdock, Lincoln, spent Monday with Mrs. Emma Murdock and Mrs. Addie Dodson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chappell, Nebraska City, were guests Sunday at the Clifford Trotter home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tyson were guests Sunday of their son, Louis and family at Oteo and their daughter, Mrs. Arnold French and family at Avoca.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Taylor and children, Council Bluffs, Iowa, were recent guests at the Geo. Poulos home.

Centennial Theme Set for Rotary Event

The Centennial theme will be in evidence next Tuesday night when Plattsmouth Rotarians are hosts to Rotary Anns at their quarterly dinner meeting.

Diners are requested to wear centennial garments for the Tuesday night dinner and program at the Presbyterian church. Robert Cappell is chairman for the 6:30 event.

The following Tuesday, Rotarians from Glenwood will pay off their attendance contest debt by providing the program for the Rotary meeting here.

The Tuesday program, presented by George Conis, consisted of colored pictures taken on a recent tour of Europe by Robert Houston, associate editor of the magazine section and travel editor of the World Herald. Houston was introduced by Lyle Copeman, son-in-law of Mr. Conis. The pictures were of Europe and north Africa.

Farmer guests at the meeting included John Valley, guest of George Conis, and Ed Wehrlein, guest of R. R. Furse.

CONGRESSIONAL PENSIONS

The Senate passed, by a 61-30 vote, a House approved bill to liberalize pensions for all members of Congress and their employees, overriding a protest by Senator William (R. Del.) that it amounted to a $7,500 bonus for each participant. Senator Williams estimated it would cost the nation $1,200,000 a year.

Elmwood Family Has Strong Wesleyan Ties

Judy and Mrs. Cook

It didn't take much effort for Judith Cook to decide to attend Nebraska Wesleyan University.

The Elmwood, Nebraska, girl, who is a Wesleyan freshman this year, was just following a long Cook tradition when she made her choice of a college.

Judy's grandmother, Mrs. William Cook, was a member of the first class to enroll at Wesleyan in 1888.

The spry, little lady who has continued to reside on the farm northwest of Elmwood since her husband's death several years ago, was already teaching when Wesleyan first opened its doors.

"I came to Wesleyan because I wanted to 'sharpen up' a little," she recently told Dr. Virgil C. Welch, assistant to the Wesleyan chancellor.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dean Rase of Maine arrived Saturday to spend a few days visiting relatives and left for their home in Maine on Friday morning.

Thursdays afternoon with a good attendance. Hostesses were Mrs. John Murdock, Mrs. Vernon Schewe, Mrs. Carl Richert, Mrs. Leo Rikli, Mrs. Von Spreckleson and Mrs. Martha Kruse, program chairman, Mrs. Viola Zeigler.

Rev. C. E. Nichols and L. W. Rase both entered the Kearney hospital on Monday for identical surgery.

Mr. Dan Schlahoff has entered the Bryan Memorial hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Ed McHugh and new son came home from the hospital on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schmidt were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Reickman on Wednesday evening.

MURDOCK

Mrs. Florence McDonald
Phone 2871 or 2322

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boyd, May-delle and Wally went to Clarinda, Iowa, on Sunday to visit Mr. Boyd's sister and husband. The husband is critically ill in the hospital at Clarinda.

Friendly Neighbors Meet at Rikli Home Wednesday

The Friendly Neighbors held their meeting at the Leo Rikli home Wednesday the 17th. The regular business of the club was taken up first, after which the program committee, Dorothy Bornemeier and Martha Schmidt took charge. Mrs. Schmidt was unable to be with us as she was assessing that day, so Dorothy Bornemeier carried on with a list of questions dealing with Ireland. Then a round or two of helpful household hints, that all found to be very useful suggestions. Meanwhile our hostess, Edna Rikli was preparing a delicious luncheon to which each did justice. All members excepting two were present and we enjoyed the addition of three visitors to the meeting. Next meeting with Mrs. Carl Richert.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. McDonald of Hampton, Nebr., visited relatives in Murdock over the week end.

Sunday guests at the Dick Brummer home were Mrs. Brummer's mother, her brother and his family, all of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Wort who now reside in Iowa spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Backemeyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rice of Columbus, Nebr., visited relatives here over the week end.

Myrtle Wendt entertained Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kupke, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wendt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wendt and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Peters on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Swarts were Lincoln shoppers on Saturday.

Kenneth Streich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Streich, who has been stationed in Texas is home on a ten-day leave.

Mrs. Leo Rikli is on the sick list this week.

Neitzels Have Guests Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Paap and children of Beatrice, Nebr., spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Neitzel. Mrs. Paap was formerly Rhoda Neitzel. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Streich and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Streich were also Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Neitzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Buck and daughter of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rase and daughter of Omaha were Monday evening guests at the L. W. Rase home.

Dr. Arthur Rikli, Murdock Native, Dies Recently

Dr. Arthur Rikli, for many years a prominent Naperville, Illinois, physician, died February 2 at the Coppy Memorial hospital, Aurora, Illinois, after an illness of several weeks. Dr. Rikli was born March 5th, 1877, at Murdock, Nebr. He was a graduate of North Central College in the class of 1903 and of Rush Medical school in the class of 1907. He was married to Sarah R. Brown of Naperville, Illinois, the same year and together they toured Europe, where Dr. Rikli did additional study in medicine. He had practiced medicine in Naperville since 1908 and for many years had been secretary of the DuPage County Medical Association. Dr. Rikli was one of the founders of the Naperville Y. M. C. A. Besides his wife Dr. Rikli is survived by four children, Mrs. Verona Bacon of Ottawa, Mrs. Mary Dickerson and Mrs. Geraldine Eckman of Galesburg and Dr. A. E. Rikli of Naperville. Five brothers, two sisters and 11 grandchildren also survive. Memorial services were held at the First Evangelical United Brethren church at Naperville. Members of the DuPage Medical Association served as pallbearers. Burial was in Naperville cemetery.

Countian Tells Qualifications For State Post

A Cass county farmer and attorney, campaigning for a State Railway Commission post, launched his vote-getting campaign in an address before the Lancaster County Democratic Central Committee Monday night.

He is F. V. Robinson of near Ashland, a native of Beatrice and former Lincoln attorney. Robinson, in his address, generally outlined duties of the commission and qualifications of the three members of the board.

In outlining his own qualifications, Robinson explained that he was born in Beatrice in 1899, son of a district judge. He graduated from Fullerton high school and attended Nebraska Wesleyan University two years. He graduated from the University of Nebraska law college in 1921 although he had been admitted to the Nebraska bar in 1920.

He served in the Marine Corps during World War I and engaged in general law practice at Lincoln from 1920 to 1941. He was assistant attorney general of Nebraska in 1937 and 1938 and was area manager for the bureau of census in 1939 and 1940.

He was named legal advisor for the 1941 session of the state legislature and in October was appointed adjudicator for the Bureau of Old Age and Survivors Insurance of the Social Security board. Robinson was enforcement attorney in the OPA office in Washington one year and was regional food price attorney at Denver until 1944, when he was appointed to the hearing commissioners of the Chicago Region until 1947.

In 1947 he and Mrs. Robinson moved to the farm in Salt Creek precinct, where he now devotes his time to farm management.
