Plattsmouth, Nebraska

Celebration of its centennial at Plattsmouth this year, can never mean more than the half-century observance noted by a Plattsmouth lady Tuesday.

She is Mrs. Josephine Ulrich, who Tuesday observed the 50th anniversary of her arrival at Plattsmouth from her native Germany.

Recalling the wooden sidewalks, 15 cent a pound coffee and that the streets were unlighted when she arrived here on April 20, 1904, Mrs. Ulrich lived in the Mynard community for 35 years before purchasing a house here and moving to Plattsmouth.

She is quick to point out, "I like Plattsmouth", and she is proud of her connection with the community.

Born in Germany she came here from Bavaria, and was soon followed by a brother, Joseph Dietl, now deceased; and a sister, Mrs. Joseph Bierl.

Coming to Plattsmouth, she worked for the Gering family for one year before her marriage to Edward Ulrich. They lived at Mynard until his death in 1936. Three years later she moved to Plattsmouth.

At present she is making her home with a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Babcock. Other seven children are Mrs. Freda Fahrlander of Nebraska City; Carl Francis and Albert Ulrich of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Richard Livingston of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Helen Snyder of Jefferson, Ia., Bernard Ulrich and Mrs. Dorothy Babcock of Omaha. She has 26 grandchildren.

Chas. Marshall
On Ag Group
To Tour Africa

Leaving in mid-May for a two-month agricultural tour of parts of Africa and the Near East will be Charles Marshall of Elmwood, president of the Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation.

Marshall is one of four Americans selected as voting delegates of an International Conference of Farm Organizations.

In Plattsmouth Tuesday, Marshall explained that he will leave New York City on May 12 to start the summer tour which will go to Nairobi, Kenya colony, Africa. The group will also tour Rhodesia and the Union of South Africa.

Marshall dined here Tuesday noon prior to receiving shots at Offutt Air Force Base in order to obtain a visa for the African tour.

Of the four selected from the United States, Marshall is the only delegate from west of the Mississippi river. The group will study agriculture and farm organizations.

Marshall is also planning to visit Jerusalem and other points of interest in the Near East before returning home. He expects to be gone two months.

He had a number of speaking engagements prior to departing from New York on the trip.
