Kenosha Extension Club Has Buttonhole, Pocket Lesson

PEO Chapter Meets Friday At Friest Home

Chapter F, PEO, met at the home of Mrs. T. I. Friest Friday with Mrs. Robert Cappell, Mrs. Elna Gortler and Mrs. William Floyd hostesses.

Mrs. Ralph Wiles reviewed the book, "The Mind Alive" and the centennial theme was carried out in a history of local business places, fraternal organizations and industries as presented by Mrs. Cappell.

Miss Amelia Martens presented several historical pictures.

Mrs. Elbert Wiles and Mrs. Estelle McClusky were delegates of the Plattsmouth chapter to the state convention at Norfolk Tuesday through Thursday of last week.

Kenosha Extension Club met at the home of Elizabeth Snodgrass on April 20 with 13 members answering roll call by giving a sewing tip.

Five children and one visitor, Mrs. Marion Worthan of Plattsmouth, were also present.

The club collect was read in unison and Donna Sack gave an interesting report on her trip to Home Ec Day at Lincoln early in the month. Presidents of all clubs were invited to the meeting.

Mrs. Elva Detering and Mrs. Oval Snodgrass gave the lesson on buttonholes and pockets. Members are to bring a finished buttonhole or pocket to the next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Wanda Conrad on May 19.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses.

On Tuesday, April 27, members of the club were guests of Mixit Club on a tour of Nebraska City. They visited the Press Printing Company, school for the blind, dress and shirt factory and bottling company.

An enjoyable day was held.
