Thrifty Stitches

On the evening of May 4, Thrifty Stitches met at the Presbyterian church to give a special program for their mothers.

Lois Gopen, president, welcomed the mothers and dads.

Donna Ernst opened the program by singing a song dedicated to mothers. It was followed by a play, telling the different little jobs "mom" does to help her children. The play, presented in operetta form, was followed by group singing.

Members in the play cast were Beverly Harris, introduction; Jeannine Newton, nurse; Janice Willes, seamstress; Shirley Suduth, laundress; Sally Amato, carpenter; Katherine Ptak, playmate; Rose Mary Nelson, cook; Nancy Painter, doctor; Deanna Hutton, judge; and Ann Winscot, minister. Donna Ernst closed the program by singing, "Mother." Each girl presented a rose to her mother.

Rev. G. E. Seybold and Rev. Keith Delap showed pictures from the "Share in the Fun" activities at Chicago, and a tape recording of the Thrifty Stitches minstrel show. Mrs. Henry Albert and Lois Gopen showed pictures they had taken of the minstrel show at the King Korn Carnival.

For money making project the girls sold boxes of cards. Refreshments of cookies and punch were served.
