Centennial Is Meeting Theme

Celebrating the 100th birthday of Nebraska in chairs were the community kensington ladies on Thursday at the Alma Clements home. Program leaders with clippings, readings and pictures were Mrs. Hollenbeck and Mrs. Plybon. Centennial celebrations were mentioned as significant this year. The nice angel food cake that the hostess had made can be considered as the birthday one, minus the candles. Most of those present were proud to tell of their pioneer parentage and their settling in this state. Mrs. Monning led in the jokes and contests. Mrs. Emily Gontzales is sending in the name of John Gonzales, 85, as a prospective member of the Century Club, as sponsored by the Nebraska Farmer.
