

Julie Chovanec Is Elected Junior Auxiliary President

Election of officers and plans for a picnic marked the business meeting of the Junior American Legion Auxiliary Friday night at the home of Joyce McClanahan. Nancy Hirz, Junior chairman, presided at the meeting. Colors were advanced by Carol Schreiner, sergeant at arms, and Janice O'Donnell, color bearer pro tem. The group sang the National Anthem, led by Julie Chovanec, and the pledge of allegiance and the preamble were repeated in unison. Chaplain Joyce McClanahan gave the prayer.

New officers of the unit are Julie Chovanec, chairman; Barbara Krings, vice chairman; Joyce McClanahan, secretary; Janice O'Donnell, treasurer; Valerie Gorton, chaplain; Sharon Dunlap, sergeant at arms; Marcia Lagerstrom, color bearer; Mary Keeley, historian.

Officers will be installed and appointive committee members will be named at the next meeting. Mrs. Sophia Wolever, Mrs. Vera Wurga and Mrs. Bob McClanahan assisted at the election.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Sharon Dunlap, secretary; and the treasurer's report was given by Valerie Gorton. Committee chairmen gave reports.

The group voted to have a picnic on Tuesday, July 27, at Merriest Beach.

The meeting closed with hostess Joyce McClanahan, assisted by her mother, serving refreshments. Games were played with prizes going to Antialee Rassi and Valerie Gorton. Joyce McClanahan and Julie Chovanec will be in charge of the program for July.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mary Ellen and Cathy Curtis.

Outstanding 4-H Grads Are Sought in Cass County

A successor to Harry Knabe of Nebraska as the State 4-H Alumni Award winner, will be named in balloting to be conducted for selection of the outstanding man and woman of the state, once 4-H club members.

Knabe filling out the accompanying information blank. The program provides two certificates of awards in each county and four state winners will be selected. Mr. Knabe was selected as the state winner for men a year ago.

Winners will receive trips to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago late in November.

Men and women who have previously been 4-H Club members and who have an outstanding record of participation and leadership in community activities and are a success in their chosen occupation or profession are eligible for consideration.

Purposes of the award are to inspire present-day youth to greater accomplishments by providing them with living examples of dependable purposeful citizens, and to encourage former 4-H Club members to support and cooperate in 4-H work.

The information blank should be mailed to the Cass County Extension office at Weeping Water.
