Leonard St. John left Wednesday for Opheim, Mont., to attend funeral services for his uncle, DeWitt St. John. The services were postponed from Thursday until Saturday, June 12, awaiting the arrival of Mr. St. John's son, Myron, who is stationed in Austria.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Rex Allen (Bonnie Linder, formerly of Nehawka), a son, Mark Wayne at Van Nuys, Calif., June 1. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Linder are grandparents. The father, Rex Allen, is the western movie star. Dr. Ellis Schlichtemeier arrived Friday from California. His wife and two daughters came by plane and he drove through. They are guests of his mother, Mrs. Lena Schlichtemeier.

a beautiful bridal bouquet of white roses.

The theme of the year, flower of the month, brought a fine exhibit of roses from the gardens of members. Mrs. Delbert Lindsey, Mrs. Elmer Stoll and Mrs. Floyd Joergel named the roses they brought. Mrs. Martin Ross, who took a group to the Sass Iris gardens recently, told of their trip and the variety of flowers seen at the gardens. Mrs. Lewis Royal gave an interesting report of the flower show given by the Avoca Garden club. Mrs. Maude Giles of Nebraska City and Mrs. Frank Linder were guests.

Refreshments were served.

Father McFadden Feted on 40th Anniversary

The Holy Trinity Guild planned a basket dinner at their hall in Avoca Sunday evening, June 13, honoring the 40th anniversary of Father E. C. McFadden. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Merle Meyer of Nehawka.

The president, Mrs. Anthony Wirth, announced $160 was cleared at the dinner held at the hall May 23.

A beautiful embroidered altar linen was displayed. The Catholic Daughters' Court of Nebraska City, with which several Avoca members are affiliated, donated $10 to the linen, the balance was paid by the Guild.

Father McFadden announced there were 15 children attending catechism school this week at the hall at Avoca. The Ursuline Sisters of Nebraska City had charge. Elmer Hallstrom of Avoca donated treats to the children on Friday.

Mrs. George Meyer received the prize. Refreshments were served. Guests were Mrs. John Marquardt, Dorothy Sand and Mrs. Leslie Behrens.

Group Tours Shenandoah

A group of members and friends of the Nehawka Woman's club made a tour of Shenandoah Thursday. They were guests of the Henry Field station in the morning and made a broadcast over KFN at 10:30 with Mrs. Esther Donat, a friend and former teacher at Nehawka. In the afternoon KMA sponsored a tour of the beautiful private flower gardens at Shenandoah and they also visited the homes of the homemaker radio-casters, Mrs. Bernice Currier and Mrs. Adella Schomaker. The Field Nursery presented each lady with an African violet and the May Nursery gave each a Peace rose plant.

Mrs. Donat and Mrs. Maurine McNeely, formerly Maurine Cisney of Nehawka, had dinner with the group. Mrs. Oren Pollard was chairman and made arrangements for the trip.

Showers at Church Honor Louise Ward Stock Thursday

It was a friendly joyous gathering at the basement of the Methodist church on Thursday afternoon. The occasion was a kitchen shower for Louise Ward Stock, now of Murdock, participated in by ladies of the community. Around eight were present. Mrs. Merle Eveland was program chairman and Ruth Kuehn Schroeder presided at the piano. First was melody of songs. Mrs. Margaret Parsell gave readings and Mrs. Opal Clements sang a solo. Highlight of the program was an elaborate mock wedding where Merle Eveland was minister; Elsie Wendt, bride; Dora Engelking, weeping mother of the bride; Ethel Strobel, bride's father; Alice Kuenh, flower girl; Margaret Parsell, groom; and Jack, Vera Pratt. Costumes were found in garrets and elsewhere. Opening gifts and passing them around was an interesting pastime. The guest of honor responded with nice words. Mrs. Bronn gave greetings early in the program and Maidele Miller played a piano solo. Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Fentiman, Lela Buel and others. Merle Eveland with some assistance, wrote the wedding story. Bridesmaid was Mrs. Winona Burrill.

Local Cottage Owners at Sanda Beach Hear of Storm

At least three Plattsmouth families were concerned about high winds, said to be up to 100 miles an hour, that struck at Sanda's Beach at Hennings, Minn., last Monday.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knorr, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Starkjohn and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Peterson, all of whom own cottages on the lake.

Striking between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m., the winds blew down an estimated 1,000 large trees. Slices and barns were down or damaged, roofs were destroyed and windows broken. Electricity and telephone service was out for hours.

Many large trees fell on cottages and homes at the beach, however damage from this source was listed as light.

Several other people well known at Plattsmouth have residences in the area.

4-H CLUB EVENTS!

Farm Bureau Board Considers Entering Fertilizer Business

Board of Directors of the Cass County Farm Bureau will meet Tuesday, June 15, to consider detailed information relative to entering the anhydrous fertilizer business.

Jerry Burge, Maynard Rippe and Leonard Lutz, members of a special investigating committee, are to report their findings to the board at the Tuesday meeting in Weeping Water.

The board has proposed installing an anhydrous ammonia plant for distribution of the fertilizer to member families and farmers.

Should the board adopt the proposal, it plans to call a special meeting of the Farm Bureau membership to present the facts to the 545 Cass county members.
