

Duffek-Schomaker Wedding Solemnized at Clarkson

Miss Evelyn Duffek and Larry Schomaker were united in marriage on Sunday, June 27, at the New Zion Presbyterian church at Clarkson by Dr. John E. Flinger in a double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Duffek of Pilger, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schomaker of Springfield.

Donald Chilcoat of Pilger sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Charles Novotny at the pipe organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over shimmering satin. It was fashioned with a fitted lace bodice with pointed neckline outlined in pleated tulle. The long, lace sleeves were pointed over the hands and her skirt featured an extension of lace fitted over the hip line from which hung clouds of tulle ending in a sweep train. Her finger tip veil was held by a beaded crown and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and lily of the valley.

Miss Anita Duffek of Pilger was maid of honor for her sister. She was gowned in yellow nylon net over taffeta. Bridesmaid—Miss Beverly Schomaker of Springfield, sister of the groom. She wore an orchid gown styled identically to that of the maid of honor. They carried colonial bouquets of orchid and yellow carnations.

Diane Kucera, Clarkson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Best man was Bill Kucera, cousin of the bride. Terry Arnold of Fort Dodge, Pa., cousin of the groom, was attendant to the groom and ushers were Merle Musser and Don Durant of Omaha. Kindal Kucera was ring bearer.

Two hundred guests were served at the church reception following the ceremony. Mrs. Howard Stone of Lindsey assisted by Mrs. Roy E. Nelson, who baked and decorated the wedding cake, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Freddie Chleboun, Jr., of Pilger poured.

Mr. and Mrs. Schomaker will make their home on a farm south of Pilger, where Mrs. Schomaker will also teach school. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Horace Griffin of Union, and the great grandmother is Mrs. E. M. Griffin of Plattsmouth.

Coloradoans Are Visitors in Union

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schaefer and son, Lowell Thomas, of Longmont, Colorado, are spending two weeks here, visiting relatives and friends in Plattsmouth, Union and Nebraska City. Their oldest son, Lyle, is at home doing the chores, but will take his vacation later.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harmon of Clarinda, Iowa, visited Mrs. Todd for a few hours last Sunday.

Minister And Family Feted

There was a reception at the Methodist church last Sunday evening honoring and welcoming the new pastor, Rev. Kiel and his family. There was a fine attendance in spite of the torrid heat. The following program had been arranged by Mrs. George Stine and Mrs. Ollie Attebery: A selection on the Hammond organ by Mrs. Howard Snodgrass; a piano solo by Doris Ehlers; vocal solo by Carol Pike, "Because"; a recitation by Judy and David Attebery; dialogue by Ellen, Kathy and Carolyn Stine; an organ selection by Carol Pike and a vocal solo by Carl Orendorff.

The refreshment committee, Mrs. Cross, Mrs. Christensen and Mrs. Mougey, served light refreshments to the guests in the basement.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Todd the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ries of Naperville, Illinois, cousins of Mrs. Todd, who came on Tuesday. On Thursday, Mrs. E. M. Rothe of Omaha, daughter of Mrs. Todd, came to spend a few days with her mother. On Sunday, Mr. Rothe and his daughter, Mrs. Wilma Carlson and her small daughter, Karen, all of Omaha, came in the afternoon. That evening they drove to Nebraska City, where they had dinner, and later enjoyed the cool of the evening at Steinhart Park.

WSCS Meets at Church Thursday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the church Thursday afternoon with a good attendance. Mrs. Ollie Attebery led the devotional period in the absence of Mrs. Todd. Mrs. George Stine had the lesson. Cooling refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Ivan Balfour and Lenna Barber.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ries of Naperville, Illinois, and Mrs. L. G. Todd were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Todd, Melvin, Jr., and Nancy last Thursday evening. After the fried chicken dinner, they all enjoyed a ride over the farm, which was a rare treat for the guests.

California Rites Unite Marilyn Luce and William G. Robertson

First Presbyterian church of Concord, California, was the scene of an impressive wedding ceremony on Saturday, June 19, 1954, when Miss Marilyn Luce, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Luce of Fairbury, became the bride of William Gray Robertson, son of Mrs. W. A. Robertson of Lincoln, and the late Judge W. A. Robertson.

A white wrought iron archway, pedestal baskets of pink and white gladioli and branched candelabra formed the setting for the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. Ernest J. Bradley in the presence of one hundred fifty relatives and friends, including many of the bride's tiny scholars and admirers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white imported Swiss embroidered organdy gown with cap sleeves, fitted bodice and chapel length train. Her Juliet cap of Swiss embroidery matching the dress had a cathedral veil of French tulle. Her mitts also matched the gown and she carried a white lace fan centered with two white orchids.

Matron of honor was Mrs. R. W. Pingel of Hamilton Field, Calif. Maid of honor was Miss Carolyn Luce and bridesmaid was Miss Sandra Luce, both sisters of the bride. Their waltz length gowns were fashioned identically of white embroidered organdy over blue with matching head dresses. Each carried a white lace fan dotted with pink rose buds and blue forget-me-nots.

Serving his brother as best man was Commander J. M. Robertson, U. S. N., of National City, Calif. Ushers were John E. Pallett of Pleasant Hill, Calif., and Harold O. Murphy of Phoenix, Arizona, brothers-in-law of the groom, and Jesse Feldman and John W. Wieland of San Francisco.

Mrs. R. P. Luce, mother of the bride, wore pink lace with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Robertson, the groom's mother, wore blue nylon embroidered in white, with matching hat and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. J. M. Robertson, sister-in-law of the groom, sang "I Love Thee" by Grieg. At the close she sang "The Lord's Prayer," while the bride and groom remained kneeling. Mrs. Dawn Davis presided at the organ, also playing the wedding music.

A reception was held at the El Nito Rancho following the ceremony. The bridal table was centered with a four-tier wedding cake decorated with pink and white roses. White tapers in silver candleholders completed the setting. Mrs. Carl Sweetser of Concord served the wedding cake. Presiding at the punch tables were Mrs. Howard Kartman of Walnut Creek, Calif., and Mrs. A. T. Seman of Los Angeles, aunt of the bride. Others assisting were Mrs. Harold Murphy of Phoenix, Arizona, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Wm. Burke of Oakland, Calif., aunt of the bride. Mrs. John E. Pallett, groom's sister, had charge of the guest book.

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a steel blue wool alpaca suit with rose colored accessories. The couple will reside at 4933 17th street, San Francisco.

Mrs. Robertson is a graduate of Cottey College, Nevada, Mo., and the University of Nebraska, where she was a member of Delta Delta Delta Sorority and PEO. For the past year she has taught kindergarten at Concord.

Mr. Robertson is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where he was affiliated with Delta Upsilon fraternity. He is a lieutenant in the active Naval Reserve.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding rites were Carl Klavon of Denver, grandfather of the bride; Dr. and Mrs. Seman of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dayton of Los Angeles; Miss Jessie Robertson of Lincoln; K. J. Klavon of Fresno; Mrs. Else and daughter, Carol, Fairbury; Mrs. O. C. Dahlgren and daughter, Nancy of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hiber of Fresno; and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Fairbank of Portland, Ore.

FATHER-SON REUNITED.

Los Angeles, Calif. — An alert realtor, John Collins, was the means of reuniting a father and son who had not seen each other for more than 25 years. Collins noticed a "house for sale" sign and the name on the mail box was the same as that of one of his friends. He called his friend's attention to the fact. The friend was A. Vincent Bisogno, 49. A quick check disclosed that the man who tacked up the sign was Bisogno's son, whom he had been seeking for more than 25 years, after having been separated from the boy's mother.

County Vacationers On Coast Invited to Cornhusker Picnic

Cass county vacationers in California during July are invited to join former countians and Cornhuskers at the Nebraska State Society of Long Beach at its annual summer picnic on July 17.

The picnic will be held at Bixby Park in Long Beach, scene of the recent Cass county picnic. The event will be held on Saturday.

On the program, scheduled from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m., will be registration by counties, presentation of souvenir badges, music by the Long Beach Municipal Band, stage entertainment and singing.

Refreshments will also be available.

Union Teacher Attends Air Age Institute

Mrs. Ben Albin of Union, grammar room teacher in the school system there, attended the Air Age Institute at the University of Omaha this week.

The Institute held morning seminars at the university and afternoon tours of Offutt Air Force Base studying the different planes. A tour of the Omaha municipal airport and a ride in a small plane were other features of the institute.

Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, famous war ace, spoke at the Friday night convocation before 150 teachers from over a five state area.

Woman's Society Views Missionary On Television

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met in the church parlors Thursday afternoon with president Mrs. Robert Brittain conducting the meeting.

At the business session, plans were made for a buffet supper to be held July 21.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Howard Davis, and the lesson, "Meeting Rural Needs" was led by Mrs. Wm. Heinrich.

Mrs. Edwin Kiel, wife of the new minister, gave an interesting talk on the moving of a town, Republican City, where they had held the pastorate. She exhibited pictures and scrap books of the activity.

Through courtesy of Meisinger Firststone a television set was provided for the afternoon so that the ladies could see and hear Miss Helen Kim, Korean missionary.

Refreshments were served by members of Naomi circle.

A SILO-BRIDGE.
Fairfield, Vt. — A gusty wind lifted an empty 40-foot silo and dropped it 600 feet away, across a brook. Mrs. Donald Reed, wife of the farmer who owned the silo, said, "It makes a perfect covered bridge."
