OUT; IN AGAIN
Baltimore, Md. — George William Mack was just leaving the jail after four and half years of a six-year term of burglary. The usual routine shakedown search was performed and Mack gathered up his few belongings and prepared to leave. Excusing himself for a moment, he dashed to the basement and returned with a small bundle he said he had almost forgotten. In it, officers found First Sergeant Chas. Zumbur's gold watch and cigarette lighter. Mack was promptly charged with larceny and again lodged in jail.

DIPS EMPLOYER
Bombay, India — Following an argument with his employer as he drove him along the Marine drive, a chauffeur deliberately drove the car containing his employer and his two sons across a crowded beach and into the sea. Police chased the car, which stopped after sea water got into the engine, and the drenched occupants clambered out. The chauffeur was arrested.
