CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

Christ Jesus' mission to reveal divine healing which overcomes sin, sickness, and sorrow in every age, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" will include the account as given in Matthew of Jesus' response to the followers of John the Baptist who asked if he was the Messiah (11:4, 5). "Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see: The blind receive their sight and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them."

The following correlative passage will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (131:26-30):

"The mission of Jesus confirmed prophecy, and explained the so-called miracles of olden time as natural demonstrations of the divine power, demonstrations which were not understood. Jesus' works established his claim to the Messiahship." The Golden Text is from John (1:17): "The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ."

Bible Comment:

The Bible Reflects All Eras of History

ONE of the things that has made the Bible's Old Testament so vitally related to human experience, and so persistent in its symbolism, is the fact that every phase of what has happened, and what is happening, to humanity is somewhere found in the record.

Periods and episodes of greatness, prosperity and splendor are interspersed in that history with periods of depression, deep suffering, and utter destruction. What is amazing is that that ancient history, surveyed against present-day events and conditions, often reads very much like the Twentieth Century. The oppression of the Jews by a hostile Pharaoh in Egypt can be compared with Hitler's attempt utterly to annihilate the Jews in Germany, and to extend that annihilation to every part of the world that he hoped to conquer.

So the Old Testament Scriptures have interest, vividness and significance for discerning readers today, that escapes those who have read them only as records of the past. What is most deeply significant in those Scriptures, however, is that out of, and in, a world of slavery and bondage, they not only contain the essential idea of freedom, but they reveal the hope, power and persistent spirit of survival.

Not only is it significant that the spirit of freedom persists in a world of bondage, but religiously there is the miracle of the survival of faith, and the aspiration for truth and righteousness. Despite the deep-dyed sins of nation and individuals, what shines forth is a pure and perfect aspiration for God, and a sublime devotion to the commonweal.

Family Night Suppers Monthly Planned by WSCS

Mrs. Walter Power gave the devotions at the meeting of the W.S.C.S. Wednesday afternoon. Her subject was "Jesus Loved the Rural Folks" and she used the parables of the Sower and the Good Shepherd. Mrs. Floyd Joergel presented the lesson on "Seed Time and Harvest." She spoke of the reward in rural churches of Japan and Korea. The mission lesson was taken from the World Outlook and was given by Mrs. Will Ost.

Mrs. John Chandler presided at the business meeting. Plans were made to hold a family night supper each fourth Tuesday of the month. The first supper will be Tuesday, September 28, and will include a reception for the teachers and ministers.

Mrs. Effie Lonker, a former pastor's wife, was a guest. Mrs. Lenker has moved back to Weeping Water from California, where she made her home for some time with her children.

Due to the inclement weather the meeting was held at the church instead of the home of Mrs. Emma Nutzman. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Emma Nutzman, Mrs. Ned Nutzman and Mrs. Deane Nutzman.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Arthur Wolph, assisted by Mrs. Louie Ross and Mrs. Albert Anderson on September 15 and will include recognition of the birthday of the W.S.C.S.

The Gospel of Christ

THE SEVEN UNITIES OF THE SPIRIT

In Ephesians 4:3 Christians are clearly commanded to "keep the unity of the Spirit." The inspired apostle did not command an impossibility. Neither did he leave to our imagination what this UNITY is to be. He proceeds in the next three verses to show it is to consist of seven things:

1. There is one body. (verse 4)
2. There is one Spirit. (verse 4)
3. There is one hope. (verse 4)
4. There is one Lord. (verse 5)
5. There is one faith. (verse 5)
6. There is one baptism. (Verse 5)
7. There is one God. (verse 6)

But notice the denominational world's inconsistency in dealing with these seven UNITIES. It says, as the passage says, there is one Spirit, one hope, one Lord, and one God; but contrary to the passage, it says there are different bodies, different faiths, and different baptisms. THESE UNITIES ARE COMMANDS AND ARE NOT TO BE IGNORED.

Unity can come only by accepting the Bible and the Bible ONLY as the divine guide. See, 2 Timothy 3:16-17.
