Motion carried to pay these bills.

Darrel Powell and Chet Bornemeier, representing the Elmwood Farmers Union, appeared before the board, requesting the road leading to their scale house be graded. The board agreed to grade the road, the Farmers Union to furnish crushed rock for said road. Commissioner Bornemeier met with the board and explained a plan being used by some of the surrounding towns whereby the cost of hard surfacing village streets was paid for with federal aid taking care of 50% of the cost and adjacent property owners the remainder.

Motion carried to have State Engineer R. L. Ayers meet with the board in the near future and get further information.

Motion carried to extend water service to the property of Mrs. Emil Bornemeier, formerly the Elliot property.

There being no further business motion to adjourn carried.
