

Sunday School Promotion Day Held Sunday, September 26

The Sunday school of the First Methodist church observed promotion day last Sunday with a special program in the sanctuary of the church. The sanctuary was beautifully decorated with several bouquets of flowers in shades of yellow and red.

Mrs. J. B. Cook, superintendent of the Sunday school, announced the program given by the different departments. The children who were promoted from one department to another were presented promotion certificates by their teachers.

All the teachers of the Sunday school were introduced to the congregation and received corsages or boutonnières as tokens of appreciation for their work, loyalty and faithfulness to the children and members of our church school. The flowers were planned on by Jayne Grosshans and Phyllis Bourke.

The teachers in the beginners and kindergarten department are: Mrs. Robert Brittain, Mrs. Louis Kief and Mrs. Fred Fischer. The primary department has Mrs. Jesse Clint of LaPlatte, Jeanine Newton, Caroline Brittain and Yvonne Nelson.

In the junior department Mrs. Lloyd Fitch is superintendent with Mrs. Theodore Yelick, Mrs. Mildred Arn, Mrs. Glenn Johnson and Lloyd Fitch as teachers.

Captain George Garrison teaches in the intermediate department, Hill Westcott the high school class, Joe York the Agora class, Fred Fischer the young married group, and C. C. Westcott the united adult class.

Certificates of recognition for regular attendance were presented to several children. Teddy Mann has had a record of five years regular attendance. Jane Nelson for four years, Billy Rishel two years, and Dickie Newton, Linda Brittain and Ariin Kiel each have attended Sunday school one year without missing. The parents and friends enjoyed the Christian fellowship with the children.

Janice Miller Of Elmwood Marries Charles Backemeyer

Mrs. Charles D. Backemeyer

Janice Faye Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Miller of Elmwood, last Wednesday was married to Charles D. Backemeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Backemeyer. The ceremony, attended by 150, was in the Elmwood Christian church, with Rev. N. F. Horn officiating.

The church was decorated with aisle candles, consisting of two seven-branch, candleabra intertwined with greenery, and baskets of pink and white gladioli. Verle Stock sang "Because" and the "Wedding Prayer" accompanied by Joyceola Elden-miller.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore lace over satin with tulle accents. The gown had a portrait neckline with lace scallops, and tulle yoke, long lace sleeves tapered to points over the wrist. The scalloped lace skirt was underlined with tulle dust ruffles swirled into a circular train revealing a back panel of tulle ruffles.

Matron of honor Joan Backemeyer wore pink lace and net over taffeta, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and frenched carnations. Bride's matron was Mrs. Valjean Stall of Eagle, and bridesmaids were Shirley Hall and Jo Smith of Lincoln. Junk attendants were Karen Backemeyer and Clayton Miller with Randy Husar as ring bearer.

Best man was Jerry Bornemeyer, with groomsmen Jerry Bornemeyer, Marion Wendt and Val Jean Stall, Ted John, Douglas Hayes and John Hayes were ushers. Joyce Miller and Sandra Backemeyer were candle lighters.

At the reception in the church parlors, the four - teired cake sat on a table covered with pink net over the pink linen cloth. Bunches of lilies of the valley were caught in loops of net. Mrs. Henry Wendt was hostess, with Mrs. Paul Husar and Mrs. Skyle Miller Jr. in charge of the dining room. Mrs. Robert Fleming cut the cake; Mrs. Myrl Miller served ice cream and Mrs. Dale Fleischman poured coffee.

Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Joe Parriott, Mrs. John Dankliff, Mrs. Ralph Creamer, Mrs. Estil Sumner and Mrs. George Coatman. Beth Mendenhall and Lila Oehlerking handled the guest books, and servers were Mrs. Verle Stock, Mrs. Vernon Bornemeyer, Mrs. Douglas Hayes and Mrs. John Hayes.

After a wedding trip to Loveland, Colo., on which the bride wore a two-piece red faille dress trimmed with black velvet, she will resume teaching at Murdock and he will be stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C., with the Marine corps.

The bridegroom has recently graduated from electronics communications school at San Diego, Calif., and Mrs. Backemeyer is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan.

sang, accompanied by Mrs. George Jacobs.

Also attending from the Junior Women's Club was Mrs. Don Wurga and Mrs. L. A. Amato.

An invitation was received by the clubs to have their 1950 meeting at Union, Nebraska.
