Display Of Flowers At Club's Meeting

Miss Evelyn Wolph, Mrs. Lewis Royal and Mrs. Elmer Stoll had a display of their chrysanthemum, the flower of the month, at a meeting of the Nehawka Flower club Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Wolph. Mrs. Stoll had a half dozen varieties, which she potted as slips in late summer and all are blooming now.

Roll call, fashion, brought out many interesting ideas in style and in flower fashions. Mrs. Floyd Joerger gave each a number of love apples which she raised from seed, for their winter bouquets. Members also told of their trips to the chrysanthemum gardens at Hamburg, Iowa and at the Ag College.

Mrs. Sadie Schrader is a new member. Guests were Mrs. Mary Ranney and Mrs. Emily Olive, members of the Weeping Water Garden club.

The December meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Floyd Joerger when Gerald Schrader will show the pictures of the Flower Show held by the club at the Methodist church in September. Mrs. Delbert Lindsey, a member, presented Gerald Schrader a box of home made candy for his services to the club.

Refreshments were served.

Auxiliary Donates Three Sweaters

Sixteen members and two guests, Mrs. Alva Linder of Plattsmouth and Mrs. Frank Hobscheid of Union, attended the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Linder.

A letter read from the state president asked members to buy bonds and also to bring used clothing and comforters for needy families of veterans. These will be taken to Lincoln and distributed to other points in the state.

The auxiliary donated three woolen sweaters to the "Yanks Who Gave." Plans were made to send Christmas boxes to the boys of the community in service, four overseas and ten in the States.

The December meeting will be a covered dish dinner at 12:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Walter Wunderlich. There will be a gift exchange not to exceed a value of 50c.

Mrs. Arthur Johnson reported on the Cass County Convention at Eagle, which was attended by Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Emma Nutzman, Mrs. Gerald Ackley and Mrs. Henry Ross.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Linder and Mrs. Sadie Schrader.

Mrs. Amelia Balfour and Mr. and Mrs. Oren Pollard attended the Eastern Star meeting at the lodge hall at Weeping Water Tuesday evening. Thirty members of the Elmwood lodge were guests. Joan Bender of Weeping Water and Jeanine Cooper of Nehawka were initiated.

The boys and girls have started practicing basketball and volley ball. The first game will be December 3 with Union at Nehawka.
