

Two Barns Burn On West, Plybon Farms

In mid-afternoon on Saturday the fire bell rang, and looking around the people were roused by a cloud of smoke and fire reaching high and going swiftly. It was Charlie West's barn burning. The fire trucks arrived and worked hard for long. As it was the barn was burned, also a board wall fence and part of the chicken houses and shed covering them. Then it proceeded to the Plybon barn and damaged half of it and hardened ten sacks of cement that were there to put in a floor for the barn to be used for a garage.

Luckily the pigeons and chickens—bantams included, were saved. Duane Krecklow bravely drove a calf from the barn yard. There was much hay stored in the barn that is a loss. Trees on the Douglas and Plybon places took much burning too. It is not certain what caused the fire. Both places had some insurance in force. Workers and the fire department deserve much credit.

Sunday guests of Mrs. Gerbeling and Mrs. Plybon were Mr. and Mrs. Clark Gustin of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Watson Jones. The Gustins had recently returned from a five day trip to the Ozarks, where the tree foliages were in brilliant colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones went on to the home of her brother Archie Miller near Avo. Mrs. Miller, the former Vida Swartz, had suffered a broken ankle on Monday, Nov. eighth and her foot was in a cast.
