Gwendolyn Gerbeling and Billy Graham Are Married

Gwendolyn Gerbeling

The Elmwood Methodist church was the setting for the candlelight wedding Tuesday, Nov. 9 of Gwendolyn Gerbeling and A. L. Billy Thomas Graham. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Gerbeling of Elmwood and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Foster Graham of Wrightsville, Ga.

A. L. Jim Fox and S. Sgt. Roy Pruitt lighted the candles for the 3 p. m. service.

Shirley Hall of Elmwood was maid of honor, wearing a gown of shrimp colored net and nylon lace fashioned with a fitted bodice and a hip treatment of lace in the graceful ballerina length skirt. A lace jacket completed the strapless gown. Roma Mitchell and Mrs. James Johnson, both of Lincoln, served as bridesmaid and bridesmatron. They wore aqua gowns styled identically to the maid of honor. They carried colonial bouquets of mums in the autumn shades of yellow and bronze.

The bride chose a walk length gown of white lace and nylon tulle, fashioned with a fitted bodice and long sleeves which came to the wrists. The graceful full skirt had alternate ruffles of lace and tulle. Miniature buttons and loops completed the trim of the gown. The bride's illusion veil fell from a crown of iridescent beads and pearls. The bride's bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white carnations centered with pink roses.

S. Sgt. Don Schockey served as best man. Ushers included A. L. Bill Wright, A. L. Ray Miller, A. L. Jim Fox and S. Sgt. Roy Pruitt. All are stationed at the Lincoln A. F. B.

The bride attended high school at Elmwood. The groom attended high school in Wrightsville. He is serving with the U. S. Air Force, having spent 19 months overseas stationed at Guam.

The couple will make their home in Lincoln where the groom is stationed at the Lincoln A. F. B.

Friends Honor John Kaffenbergers At Church

A farewell supper was held Monday evening, November 15th at the Presbyterian church honoring Mr. and Mrs. John Kaffenberger and son Dwane who departed for California Wednesday to make their home.

The Kaffenbergers have been lifetime residents of Plattsmouth and their many friends regret their leaving the community.

A covered dish supper was served at 7 o'clock to 75 members and friends, after which a musical program and song-fest was held. Rev. Delap leading the group in singing. Mrs. Roy Knorr accompanied at the piano.

Miss Jeanne Wless presented a number of accordion selections and a quartette consisting of Mrs. Esther Meisinger, Mrs. Jake Tritsch, Mrs. Florabelle Wehrbein and Mrs. Margaret Terryberry sang two numbers.

Later in the evening Mrs. P. T. Heineman presented Mrs. Kaffenberger with a gift from the church circle of which she is a member.

The Kaffenbergers will make their home at Long Beach, California.

Lewiston Circle Plans Christmas Party

The Lewiston Social Circle met Nov. 9th at the home of Wills Hansen with Margaret Moore and Lois Hansen as co-hostess.

FAKE INSURANCE ADS
The Federal Trade Commission has accused 17 companies in the health, hospital and accident insurance business of "false and misleading advertising." Together, the 17 firms—including the four largest in the field—represent annual premium payments of more than $300,000,000, or about one-third of the total health and accident policies written on individuals in the country. Individual hearings on the charges are to be held in December.
