Mrs. Ruth Abrams has sold her beauty parlor in Lincoln and from now on she will be at home here in her beauty salon. Mrs. Chas. Fieschman attended the Friendly Neighbors Club at the home of Mrs. Donald Wiles of Weeping Water on Thursday afternoon. It was their Christmas party day. Mrs. Addie Howe was a Thanksgiving dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Whitney. They have their home now finished to their liking. Mr. Whitney is employed with the agricultural department in Weeping Water.

"It was wonderful" was the comment of members of the Blue Bird extension club after they viewed the colored film of the European trip given by Mrs. Paul Bornemeier at her home on Thursday evening. Mr. Bornemeier helped with the comments. They were on two tours so that they could visit cousins in Germany between times. Pictures included some of the ocean ships. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dorr and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dorr and family of Falls City visited several days for their holiday trip in Sheridan, Wyoming at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Larson. She is the former Frances Dorr. Mr. Larson is employed in the office of the Peter Kewitt Construction Co.

George Kunz of Weeping Water had a birthday on Friday, Dec. 3. Several people sent cards to him. He is usually in good spirits although kept at home, most of the time. Attending the sub-district meeting of the W.S.C.S. at Umdilla on Thursday afternoon were Mrs. Eldon Mendenhall, Mrs. Blanche Kuehn, Mrs. Morning, Mrs. LeRoy Cook and Mrs. Guy Clements. Mrs. Mendenhall a district officer was on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller, Mrs. Hollenbeck and Mrs. Plybon were Lincoln shoppers on Tuesday. Dick Apt of the Marines had an eleven day furlough recently and while here was at home with his grandmother, Mrs. Addie Fieschman. His mother, Mrs. Rhea Apt of Lincoln spent several days including Thanksgiving with them, while he was here. He returned Wednesday evening to California to be in a school in Camp Barstow.

Harry Green was a business visitor in Beatrice Thursday. His daughter, Mrs. Alvin Reuter, is well after having trouble with an infected tooth.

Miss Myrtle Wood has shown her European color films in a number of places. She has a projector and screen. Her largest audience was at the Weeping Water Congregational church.

Miss Shirley Ann Kunz daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kunz was married in Lincoln recently to Richard Snyder at the home of his parents. Mrs. Dudley Leant and Mrs. Herold Krecklow attended the Extension Club Council on Monday afternoon at Weeping Water. Miss Grace Wood went with them and visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Wood.

Mrs. Frank Butler and Mrs. J. R. Reeder of Cambridge were Thursday evening supper and overnight guests of Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Schneider. Mrs.

Butler is a sister-in-law of the late Mrs. Hugh Butler. A large picture of Hugh Butler has been placed in the Cambridge library.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bornemeier had a visit at Red Oak, Iowa with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schoenberg. The turkey dinner was in Clarinda at the home of Joe's land sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eveland spent last week in Chicago where they attended the National Live Stock show. The children were cared for by their grandmother, Mrs. Eveland and their aunt, Mrs. Howard Pool.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stoll of Eagle were six o'clock dinner guests of Mrs. Addie Howe on November 13 to help her celebrate her birthday. W. S. C. S. study club met with Mrs. Chas. Marshall on Monday evening. Mrs. Eldon Mendenhall was lesson leader for the evening.
