HIT BY PLANE PROP: LIVES
Dayton Ohio — Mrs. Elizabeth Fennell, an "airplane parker" at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, had just guided a twin-engine C-45 into parking position and was placing blocks in front of the plane's wheels, when she was struck by the propeller. While she lost a front tooth and had thirteen stitches taken in the lower part of her face, she feels she is lucky to be alive.

ROBBER GETS IRONED
Pasadena, Cal.—When a hold-up man threatened to harm Mrs. Eleanor Ann Dunlap's two small children unless she gave him her household money, Mrs. Dunlap let him have it — not the money but the hot iron she held in her right hand. The hot iron hit the man right in the mouth and he fled — with $4 in small change from Mrs. Dunlap's purse.
