Union School Gives Christmas Program

On last Monday evening the grade teachers and their pupils presented a Christmas program to a packed house of over two hundred people at the school house. Mrs. Myrtle Wolph's little folks gave "The Doll Song," "Christmas Tree," "Cookie Song" and the "Pony Song" was very clever as the little folks rode their "stick horses" as they sang. Three little girls sang "The Teapot Song" and a tap dance number by Idona Meredith and Johnnie Watts was very cute. They closed their part of the program with a Rhythm Band number.

Mrs. Rich presented her pupils in several Christmas songs. Bobby Harrah played a piano number "Jingle Bells." Iola Mae and Irene Fay Rich played the piano duet entitled "Sleepy Time." David Atebery gave a reading entitled "Guess Who." The fifth grade gave "The Legend of the Christmas Tree." Iola Mae Rich gave a recitation in costume, entitled, "The Little Christmas Caller."

Mrs. Albin presented her pupils in a group of songs, a trio of boys, Jerry Neil, Bobby Joe Garreus and Bill Witty sang, "The Three Kings." Jerry Ann Durn played a piano solo. Their closing number a pantomime, was very clever. The story was read by Barbara Banning. These three teachers have worked very hard to prepare these programs and much credit is due them. A short business meeting was held before the program. The refreshment committee were Mrs. John Watts, Mrs. John Niel, Mrs. Hartman, Mrs. Virgil Mead, Mrs. Donald Meredith and Mrs. George Poulos.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Roggen spent last week end visiting relatives at Fullerton and Cushing, Nebraska. They returned home last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Balfour celebrated their forty-second wedding anniversary by having a family dinner at their home last Sunday. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. Kent Balfour and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Balfour and family, Mrs. Amelia Balfour all of Nehawka, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Balfour, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson of Nebraska City, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wessel and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Balfour and family.

On Dec. 9th, Mrs. L. B. Moughey and Mrs. Richard Moughey were hostesses for the Womens Society of Christian Service at the L. B. Moughey home with twenty-two members present. Mrs. Ollie Attebery acted as secretary in absence of Mrs. Courtney. Devotions were led by Mrs. Todd, using the "Christmas Story" with comments on the Nativity Scene. The closing part of her service stressed the need of remembering the children especially during their Christmas season. Another chapter of the Study Book was reviewed by Mrs. Ollie Attebery. Mrs. Snodgrass and Mrs. Hansen conducted a small bazaar for the members which was a financial success. At the close of the meeting the hostesses served apple pie and ice cream, nuts and coffee.

The Union Womens Club held their annual "Family Night Christmas Party" at the Methodist church on Tuesday, Dec. 7th in the evening. There was an abundance of delicious food for the luncheon in which the fifty guests all took part very willingly. Later the tables were cleared and folded away, and chairs were arranged for the guests to enjoy an exchange of Christmas gifts which created some real fun. This was followed by Dwayne Grunwald, from the service, showing a collection of beautiful pictures he had taken in Belgium, Germany, Austria, Italy, France and England. Mrs. Moughey led the group in singing several Christmas Carols. Every one agreed it was an evening well spent and enjoyed very much.

Mrs. and Mrs. Melvin Todd and daughter Nancy and Mrs. L. G. Todd attended the Platts-mouth High school entertainment last Tuesday evening, Dec. 14th. The program was beautiful and impressive from beginning to end and showed that these young people had worked very hard to be able to present such a wonderful program under a very efficient director, Mr. M. D. McKenney.
