

LOUISVILLE

Mrs. Bessie Core
Phone 4377

Gift Corn Loaded

A load of corn was loaded at the Manley elevator Saturday by Herman Arends for the all Lutheran Food Appeal of Minneapolis. The grain was donated by the members of Immanuel Lutheran, Christ Lutheran, and a few members of Trinity Lutheran churches.

The car contained 850 bushel and was shipped to the Ralston Purosa Co. at Omaha for processing into cereals and syrup for shipment to the needy over seas by the Lutheran Agency.

The Oak Grove School and its leader, Mrs. Josephine Rechart presented its annual Christmas program Friday evening Dec. 17th at eight o'clock. Lunch was served as usual.

The senior class presented its play, "Girl Crazy" at the new high school auditorium Thursday and Friday evenings of last week, to very good crowds. The presentation under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Staben was a very fine piece of work by the students and drew much applause from the audience.

Mrs. Staben was presented a bouquet of roses by the class on Thursday evening and a valiant set Friday evening by the cast in appreciation for her help in preparing for the play.

Mrs. W. J. Meyers spent Monday and Tuesday of last week in Omaha visiting with her daughter Laura Ingalls and husband and their little 5 month old son.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Isaac spent Sunday in Lincoln visiting their daughter and friends.

Hazel La Vonne, of Lincoln daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Isaac, has been out of school last week with an infected ear. The Golden Circle club held its Xmas meeting and party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Chris Murray. All 18 members were present.

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Halstead were in Bloomington, Iowa last week, called there by the death of Rev. Halstead's youngest brother, Forrest Halstead.

Most of Louisvilles business places are staying open evenings now until Xmas to accommodate the people who have to shop in the evening.

The Free Methodist church has planned a Christmas program which will be presented Sunday evening at the church. It will begin at 7:30.

Supt. and Mrs. Richard Whitmore and family were in Omaha Saturday morning for the children to visit with Santa Claus.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith and daughter Sherry of Omaha were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wildrick. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Wildrick were hospital patients at the M. E. hospital together.

Mrs. Minnie Knutson plans to leave Louisville, Dec. 22, for San Antonio, Texas to spend Xmas and the holidays with her son, Arthur and family.

Richard Koterzina had his tonsils removed last week.

Mrs. Alton Sterling was an Omaha shopper Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Mayfield of Omaha visited at the L. J. Mayfield home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wildrick were in Omaha Monday where Mrs. Wildrick underwent a checkup.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McGregor and family of Omaha visited at the McGrew and McGregor homes here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Isaac were Omaha visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott McGrew were shopping in Omaha Saturday. L. J. Mayfield accompanied them and visited Mrs. Mayfield at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Steffler and Mrs. Laurence Duerr and Marlene drove to Lincoln Sunday to the University of Nebraska presentation of "The Messiah." Miss Jennie Stiffler sang in the group.

Miss Jean Wright, student nurse at the Immanuel hospital in Omaha came down to spend Saturday night and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Wright.

Has 85th Birthday

Mrs. John Myers, of Grandma Myers, to nearly everyone, is observing her 85th birthday at home here next Saturday, Dec. 18. She is in quite good health most of the time and enjoys her friends that she has made during the more than 50 years since she came from Iowa to Louisville to make her home.

A delegation from Hildreth, Neb., came Saturday afternoon to look over the new high school plant here. The delegation, numbering about 25, arrived by bus they stopped at Hebron, Sibley and Murdock before coming to Louisville. Hildreth is planning some remodeling and building and the people were interested in getting some ideas before starting to build.

Dan McCullian was only very slightly injured but his car was badly wrecked early Sunday morning when he hit the Buffalo bridge north of town while returning to Louisville. Just how the accident happened is not known. He was said to be alone at the time and he got out with only minor cuts and bruises. Mr. McCullian is one of the tree trimming crew that has been working here for the past couple of years. The Andy Lundteigen car which was following the McCullian car also was somewhat damaged at the same time, but not so extensively. Both cars were brought in to the Schoppa garage for repairs. Occupants of the Lundteigen car suffered bruises.

The Christian church planned a Xmas program which was presented at the church Sunday evening, Dec. 19.

Glenette Brown of Wheatland, Wyoming, Madelyn Eisen of Sidney, Neb., and Abri Kealing of Maryville, Kans. were week end guests of Miss Donna Vogler.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Dill of Springfield are proudly wearing the title of great grandparents for the first time. A 6 lb. 10 oz. daughter, Linda Susan, was born Dec. 1 at St. Elizabeth's hospital in Lincoln to their granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mueller.

A cut glass bowl over 100 years old belonging to Linda's great, great, grandmother Kittrell was used to baptize her Wednesday evening, Dec. 8th. Linda's father flew to Lincoln from San Diego, Calif. to spend a 30 day leave from the Navy at the time of her birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Arends and family of Manley drove to Minden Sunday morning and saw the lighting of the Xmas city. They also visited Pioneer Village at Minden and the "House of Yesterday" at Hastings before returning to their home at Manley Monday.

Mrs. Fred Huff, who has been visiting her daughter at Wilmette, Ill. came home Saturday. She says the Chicago weather is cold with snow. The city is a mad rush with stores jammed with Xmas shoppers, so says Mrs. Huff.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Koop went to Lincoln Thursday evening where they were guests in the John Polk home. District Judge John Polk's son was home from a tour of duty in the far north. After a short leave he will be stationed in the south-land.

Fred Huff arrived home last Thursday from a couple of weeks trip to Cheyenne, Wyoming, Denver and other places in Colo. He reports that they were having extremely nice weather but they were in need of the snow they should be getting this time of year.

Margaret Worthman was hostess to the Happy Hour club at their Xmas party. Co-hostesses were Esther Inman and Esther Schneider.

The program was given by Frances Schlietert and Alta Beier, Carols and games and the Christmas story as a modern world would tell it. Mary Biggs, Janet Schlietert and Susan Worthman were the guests.

The Junior Federated Women's Club met at the home of Irene Johnson with Pauline Frederickson as co-hostesses on Wednesday.

There were 21 members present. The club voted to purchase chairs for the library with the money they made from the card party.

The Army has 36,000 men assigned to military police duties as of June, 1953.

Help Fight TB

Buy Christmas Seals

ELMWOOD

Mrs. Grace Plybon
Phone 4-2247

Stroke Suffered

Miss Anna McFall suffered a light facial stroke early this week. She can walk and by keeping quiet she is slowly recuperating.

The Community Farm Bureau unit met with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rosenow on Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rosenow as co-hosts. Pres. Howard Pool was chairman and reports from the State Farm Bureau meeting at Lincoln were given by Le Roy Cook, Dick Pratt and Paul Eveland.

From the women's division Hulda Oehrling and Vera Pratt reported. Officers elected for next year are, president, La Verne Nickel; vice president, Howard Vogt; secretary - treasurer, Henry Bornemeier and Alma Marshall, chairman of the associated women's activities. A grab bag gift exchange provided entertainment.

The last meeting of the year for the Bluebird extension club was held with Mrs. Krecklow, with Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Plybon assisting hostesses for this December sixteenth meeting.

The president, Mrs. Leavitt announced that this club received recognition as first place winner for the booth at the county fair.

Mrs. Leavitt and Mrs. Krecklow reported on the council meeting at Weeping Water and told the national goals for club activities for 1955.

Officers were installed by past president Krecklow with one exception they are to be the same as last year. Mrs. Alma Marshall completes her term. Mrs. Emmett Cook was installed as secretary.

Mrs. Lenz and Mrs. Chas. Fleischman conducted the program of games and music. Readings were given by Mrs. Robb and Mrs. Parsell. Mrs. Robb read the beautiful Christmas article written by Rev. Peter Marshall former U. S. Senate chaplain.

The decorations of the Krecklow home were interesting. Outside was a large Santa pointing to the red letter words, "Merry Christmas." Inside was a gum drop tree on plastic, candles in stands made by Darlene Krecklow, being features. An interesting article was the new coffee table made by Duane Krecklow for his manual work at school. Refreshments were served at a tea table consisting of fancy sandwiches, cookies, nut meats and coffee.

An interesting article was the new coffee table made by Duane Krecklow for his manual work at school. Refreshments were served at a tea table consisting of fancy sandwiches, cookies, nut meats and coffee.

Community Kensington will meet with the president, Mrs. Clark on Dec. 30. This will be the annual Christmas party and gift exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. August Oehrling were honored Sunday, Dec. 12th when their children and their families came to their home for the celebration of their 55th wedding anniversary. There was a holiday supper and gift exchange.

One hundred and one persons gave blood at the Red Cross Bloodmobile on Monday at the Methodist church. Sanford Clements is the county chair, Mrs. Emily Gonzales the local chairman. Mrs. Vincent Phillips was in charge of refreshments served and Dale Fleischman of the equipment men. They are presidents of the Legion and Auxiliary who sponsored the activities. Assisting the four nurses of the unit were Doctors Liston and Knosp and nurses Mrs. Richard Pratt, Viola Bornemeier, Mrs. Donlan of Eagle and Mrs. Ralph Dreamer of Alvo.

There has been a new Brotherhood organized in the E. U. B.

Phyllis Ann Switzer Wed Last Friday

Baskets of mums, gladioli and carnations of various colors decorated the Methodist church of Nehawka, Friday, December 17, 1954, for the wedding of Phyllis Ann Switzer of Nehawka and Marion Paul Gregg of Murray.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Randall Switzer of Nehawka, the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gregg of Murray.

Rev. Fred C. Gardner, pastor of the Methodist church of Nehawka, officiated at the seven o'clock in the evening ceremony in the presence of one hundred relatives and friends. Mrs. Richard Richter of Murray sang "The Lord's Prayer," her accompanist was Mrs. G. W. Weik.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a gown of slipper satin with high neck line of nylon net, her full skirt falling into a cathedral train. Her veil was caught by half hat of lace embroidered with pearls. She carried a red rose on a white Bible.

Janice Switzer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of yellow taffeta with yellow overskirt. She carried pink roses. Nancy Switzer, another sister, served as flower girl. She wore blue taffeta with a blue overskirt. The bride's mother wore a blue dress with a mum corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue crepe dress and mum corsage.

Miss Ahlene Fitch has purchased from Henry Schaefer the corner building near the Elms Cafe. She is having it fitted out for two apartments. Clarence Ohm is doing the work, assisted by Chas. Roelofs of Alvo.

SAILOR'S DELIGHT

The middy blouse is back, this time in cotton knit. An oversize collar and contrasting stripes at the neckline give it an enticing nautical look for wear on chilly, early spring days.

Children are looking forward to be given them after the film show which is for everybody on Friday afternoon, Dec. 24.

Recent capital city visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bornemeier, Lena Rieke, Mrs. Alton Miller, Mrs. Wendt, Mrs. Orval Miller, Mrs. Gerbeling and Mrs. Plybon.

Walter H. Harold R. Smith & Lebens
Attorneys-at-Law
Donat Bldg. Plattsmouth

FUSSELMAN FUNERAL HOME

Laurence Gregg served his brother as best man, ushers were Richard Gregg and Jim Gregg, brothers of the groom. A reception was held in the church parlors.

Holly used to decorate tables was a gift from an uncle and aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Flesman of Eugene, Ore. Assisting at the reception was Mrs. Laurence Gregg, and Mrs. Harold Gregg; guest book, Mrs. Arley Schomaker and Ruth Bruns, and Jo Ellen Nixon at the gift table.

The bride is a graduate of the Nehawka high school with the class of 1934 and is employed with Mutual of Omaha.

The groom graduated with the class of 1953 at Nehawka, and is associated with the Burlington Railroad in Omaha.

The couple will be at home at 209 So. 36th St. Omaha.

Personal clothing issued a male soldier when he enters the Army is valued at $169.86. For enlisted women the total is $190.63 plus $30 in cash for the purchase of undergarments.

WE LIKE TO PLAY SANTA! THAT'S WHY EVERY WEDNESDAY Is Double Stamp Day!

Yes! You can enjoy EXTRA SAVINGS each Wednesday, with DOUBLE GREEN STAMPS given with each purchase of $1.00 or more.

FELDHOUSEN DRUG
Your Friendly Drug Store
Dial 6117

Walter H. Harold R. Smith & Lebens
Attorneys-at-Law
Donat Bldg. Plattsmouth

Received in the "Nick" of Time . . . St. Nick that is . . .

All The Prints That Are Fit To Be News!

In time for the holidays . . . a gay whirl of cottons styled as only Huntington can . . . pert . . . eye-catching and pretty as a picture. All three famous names! . . . all at little prices that are dollars below the styling! For Christmas gifts or give yourself one!

Right . . .
Perky gingham with stand-up sleeve detail, side entrance pockets. 12 to 20, 14 1/2 to 24 1/2.

5.98

Kay Whitney by HUNTINGTON

Happy Home Styles
Just 2.98

Glenbury Styles
Just 3.98

Kay Whitney Styles
Just 5.98

Left . . .
Quarter-check gingham daintily trimmed in lace at the neckline and four times around the skirt. 12 to 20.

5.98

Kay Whitney by HUNTINGTON

REPLACEMENT OR A REFUND OF MONEY Guaranteed by Good Housekeeping IF NOT AS ADVERTISED THEREON

as advertised in and guaranteed by GOOD HOUSEKEEPING

Just received . . . 200 new dresses that are sure to be news! Perfect gifts for Christmas, or give one to yourself . . . they're a gala buy at these little prices. See them now, at Soennichsen's!

These dresses are news! Every single one looks like dollars more than its little price!

You get the styling, the detail work, the flair and eye appeal of much higher priced fashions . . . yet you can't pay more than 5.98 for any of these festive cottons.

Every one washes with ease. They like a charm . . . give them for Christmas or give yourself one, they're nothing short of terrific! You have dozens of styles to choose from, and each style is as new as tomorrow's headlines! Choose one now!

10 to 20
14 1/2 to 24 1/2

"WHERE QUALITY COSTS LESS"

Soennichsen's

DEPARTMENT STORE

for the fit of your life

Coopers Unisize

You'll like the way that Coopers Unisize hose snug your ankle—never wrinkle, never sag. That's because they're made from special stretch Nylon that conforms to your foot. So elastic that one size fits all feet from size 9 to 13.

Our selection features a wide variety of colors and styles.

$1.00
Boys . . . 75c

SMITH'S

MEN'S WEAR

5th & Main Plattsmouth

Buy Christmas Seals