

Marilyn Tyson, Dick Huebner Married at Lincoln Saturday

The marriage of Miss Ann Marilyn Tyson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roland William Tyson of Murray, to Richard A. Huebner, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Huebner of Plattsmouth, was solemnized Saturday evening at a candlelight ceremony in Trinity Lutheran Church.

The bride's attendants included Miss Sue Brillhart of Columbus, as maid of honor, and five bridesmaids, Miss Mimi DuTeau, Miss Jan Harrison, Miss Gail Wellensiek and Miss Ann Laurer, both of Grand Island, and Miss "Pat" Haythorn of Albuquerque, N. M.

The attendants' princess-styled frocks of silver-mist brocade were designed with deep portrait necklines and trimmed with rhinestones. Their costumes were completed by matching muffs accented with red roses.

The bride's Elizabethan-styled gown was fashioned of Chantilly lace over satine. A Queen Anne lace collar framed the neckline of the gown's molded lace bodice and the full lace skirt was edged with a deep hemline pattern of scalloped lace, extending to form a wide cathedral train.

An Elizabethan cap bordered with an open design of seed pearls held her double fingertip veil of English silk illusion.

Dick Huebner of Plattsmouth served as best man and the corps of ushers included Jerry Bagton of Gering, Andy Bunten of Cheyenne, Wyo., Ray Kobald of Plattsmouth, Del Toebbin of Nickerson and Harry Giesselman of Arlington.

The bride will be graduated in June from the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. She will then join Lt. Huebner in England.

Lt. Huebner, now serving in the USAF, was graduated from Mrs. Richard A. Huebner the University of Nebraska where he was affiliated with Beta Sigma Psi. He and his bride will be in England for the next two years.
